ELIZABETH KENNEDY

1. History of Maries County by Everett Marshall King, pp. 565-569: James Bailey Family - mentions son Alexander. That Alexander Bailey did not die single and childless has been proven in my supplemental on John Delaney ()

2, Letters of Administrators, Crawford County Missouri, Vol. A, p. 57: "...James Baily deceased late of the County of Crawford in the State of Missouri died intestate..." "7th day of Nov A. D. 1845."

3. Heirs of James Bailey: Maries County Deed Book T, pp. 512-513 - "Margaret Bailey the wife of Alexander Bailey Dec.d"

4. Birth of Elizabeth Kennedy Bailey - Everett King did not know the maiden name of Elizabeth wife of James Bailey. See Membership Roster and Soldiers, 1961, compiled by Edythe Rucker Whitley, p. 958: Children of Daniel Kennedy includes #7 - Elizabeth, born Aug. 21, 1790, married James Bailey.

5. Death of Elizabeth Kennedy Bailey - Heirs of James Bailey: Maries County Deed Book T, pp. 512-513: "...and Elizabeth Baily all heirs of James Bailey senor, Deceased." Puts death date at p 1st Sep 1846. Elizabeth Kennedy Bailey is not found on the 1850 census.

Description:
This database details those persons enumerated in the 1840 United States Federal Census, the Sixth Census of the United States. In addition, the names of those listed on the population schedule are linked to the actual images of the 1840 Federal Census. Enumerators of the 1840 census were asked to include the following categories in the census: name of head of household, number of free white males and females, number of other free persons, names of slave owners and number of slaves, number of foreigners, and town or district and county of residence.

Nebraska; and Nellie who married a Smith and whose present address is not at hand. In addition, another son, James Light, married and left a son, Walter, and a daughter, Anna, married name unknown, also left descendants, all of whom are believed to be dead.

Val S. Light, old-time City Marshal of Rolla, who made good boys out of a number of that city's bad ones, was twice married. His first wife was Jennie Smith of Phelps County, by whom he was the father of one son, Frank, now in California. His second wife was Mary J. Moman. Of the four children of this marriage Alice is dead; she was married and left descendants but their names and addresses are not known here. Lula and probably Maud live in Chicago, and Ernie in this county.

Caroline, wife of A. L. Joice, twice County Judge of this county, spent her entire life and died near Veto in this county, near which her son, William, and one daughter, wife of Sherman Moreland, now live. The other daughter lives in either Detroit or Chicago.

Libbie Light married a Ray and spent most of her married life in Texas County where both she and her husband died. Her children, all now in California, include: Anna, Letitia, wife of Edward Wegman, Nannie, Ella, wife of Charles Baxter and Georgia, some of whom may be dead.

Ellen, the remaining child of Wright Light, married Thomas Dotson, also in Phelps County. Her children several years ago were: F. P., Bevina, Columbus, and Marion Dotson. We have no information as to their addresses or family circumstances.

Flower Light, the youngest of the three Light brothers and in his day a noted jockey at the old Spencer Mill Track, died at Vichy something like forty-five years ago, having been totally blind the last years of his life. His first wife, whom he married before leaving Tennessee and the mother of all his children, was a Rice. Their five children, not in age-order, were: John, William, George, Ellen, and Jane Light, all long since dead.

John married Lizzie Elder and not many years afterwards moved to the Boston Mountains in Arkansas, where he spent the remainder of his life and where he and his wife both died. At the time they left here they were the parents of two daughters, Sarah and Jane; nothing is known here of other descendants.

William Henson (Bud) Light married Mary Ford; they lived their entire lives and died in Spring Creek Township, childless.

George Light went to Texas in an early day where he married and spent the remainder of his life. Ellen married a Dr. Fancher and lived the remainder of her life in Kansas; nothing is known here of any descendants of either of them.

Jane Light, the remaining child, married John Hood. She died in this county in middle age, after which her widower and their children moved to Colorado, where he and two of the children, Robert and Nellie, died. The remaining children, Ralph, Lester, Della, wife of John Hibler, and Blanche, who married a man named Murchison, are thought to still live in that state.

Sometime after the death of his first wife, Flower Light was married to Eliza, widow of Jacob Love, nee Miller, daughter of Martin Miller, who survived him; no children were born of this marriage.

We have even fewer details about the Bailey family than we have about the Lights. James Bailey Senior was the ancestor of the family, coming here from Tennessee with or at least near the time the Lights came, and the record of one of his daughters, Margaret, is found in the Light section of this chapter. James seems to have lived on, or at least to have owned, the land on the south end of Lanes Prairie now owned by Ernest Rieka and Clarence Love, which he sold to John Love, Clarence' grandfather in 1840. This seems to be the only record of land owned by him and was more than likely his home place. Both he and his wife, Elizabeth (family name unknown) as well as one son, Alexander, were dead prior to 1866, the last dying either single or childless. The eight living children at that time were: Allen, George James, William, Daniel, Mary Ann, wife of Isaac Sands, Margaret, wife of Wright Light, and Lutitia, wife of Harmon H. Newberry.

We have no information as to Lutitia, the record being silent as to both her and her husband. It may be that they were among the first members of the Newberry to move to the western part of the state.

Mary Ann Bailey married Isaac Sands who was in some way related to the Joyce family. They probably never lived in this county after their marriage, the Sands home place being just off the Bourbeuse River above Royal in Phelps County. Both died there or near there before the Civil War, likely early in life, leaving three children. Of these 'Cos' disappeared during the Civil War and was never heard of thereafter; he was single at the time of his disappearance. The other two children, Hardin who married Jane Hance, and Elmira, wife of Ballard Hudgins, spent their married lives and died in Phelps County. Three of Hardin's five children, Minnie, wife of James King, Isaac, and Edward, also live in that county. Elmira, wife of James Wallace, lives in Iowa, and Charles Sands in St. Louis. Two of Elmira Hudgins' children, John and Dabney, also live not far from Newburg; the other two, Isaac and Thomas, are dead. The former married Hattie Niles and is survived by their six children: Clarence, Mrs. Clara Wehmeyer, Mrs. Hazel Yelton, Mrs. Stonewall Yelton, and one more girl, and a boy. Five children survive Thomas whose wife was Agnes Light: Louis, Claude, Ralph, Mrs. Inez Rinks, and Mrs. Blanche Weiss.

James Bailey, who was likely the oldest son of James Senior, married Nancy, daughter of George Moreland. We do not have his birth and death dates, but his wife was born in Tennessee in 1811 and died here in 1907. He died not later than early middle age and his widow later married Joseph Husband. The five children born of the Bailey marriage were: Jane, Margaret, Polly Ann, George, and William; Jane married James Riley and was the mother of two children, both of whom died without issue; Margaret married a Logan, address not now known, and became the mother of one son, Peter Logan; Polly Ann was twice married, first to a Graham by whom she was the mother of one daughter, Anna, who married William Tennyson; her second marriage was to John Tyler and of the six children born of the marriage Ellen, wife of John Fannon, died without issue; Evelyn, wife of Alfred Fannon, lives in Detroit and James, Clarence, John, and Elsie live around Belle.

We have no record of the birth and death dates of Allen Bailey and his wife nor her maiden name. Both have been dead many years, as have the three children born of the marriage of whom we have any record. His home place seems to have embraced the land now owned by Sherman Moreland and probably other land adjoining. The three children born of his marriage were Jane, Elkanah P., and Elbert. Jane married William Collins and was the mother of one child, also named Jane, who married in Oklahoma and whose married name is not at hand. After the death of Collins she married a man in Oklahoma named Bilyeu, but the latter marriage was childless.

Elkanah P. Bailey was born April 25, 1842 and died November 11, 1922. His wife, Louisa J., nee Hart, was born May 3, 1844, and died August 11, 1930. One child died in infancy, the eight living to maturity being: Daniel W., Mary M., wife of James Sigler; Ida, wife of Jeff Moreland; Robert L., H. T., Minnie, wife of J. Bert Hart; Margaret, widow of Jacob Crutts; and N. B. Bailey who died single.

Elbert Bailey married Martha Hayes and aside from the names of their children very little data have been gathered regarding them. The children include William and Wiley in Texas; George, two of whose daughters are thought to live around Jefferson City; Elkanah (Cain) at St. James; Wooster who lives around Holiness Camp Ground in this county; Bettie who married John Shanks and moved away; and Anna who died single.

Daniel Bailey, the best known of the sons of James Senior, was born June 10, 1825, and died March 11, 1866. His wife was Susan A. H., daughter of William Marcee. She was born March 17, 1831, and died March 2, 1877. Some years after the death of her first husband she married William Hayes; this second marriage being childless. Daniel Bailey was at one time or another owner of considerable land in both this and Phelps counties, part of his activities being in partnership with his brother, Allan, and part of them by himself. He left a large estate, both in real and personal property, and as all his children were minors at the time of his death the estate was in Probate Court fifteen years or more. The six children born of his marriage and living at the time of his death were John P., James Wiley, William A., George A., Martin A., and Nigaria A. Bailey. Nigaria, the only daughter, married L. R. Wentzel, April 12, 1878 and is now dead. Her husband, an old-time schoolteacher in this county and in Illinois and later for sixteen years Circuit Clerk and Recorder of Gasconade County, lives in St. Louis. The six children born to them all yet living are: Mattie, wife of Ira Meyers of Morton, Texas; Mrs. Dina Copeland, Urich, Missouri; Mrs. Mabel McGehee, Kennett, Missouri; Austin F. of 2748 Hermitage Avenue, and Stella and Dr. Louis R. Wentzel Junior, both of 2726 Chouteau Avenue. The last three are in St. Louis.

John P. Bailey married Arminta Beckham, December 13, 1880, and his brother, William A. Bailey, married

Mary M. Duke, June 27, 1880. The descendants of these brothers are not known.

James Wiley Bailey may have been married twice, but the offspring of only one marriage is at hand. This was to Martha A. E. Clark (daughter of Frances Hodge, mother of John Hodge, et al., by her second marriage which was to Stephen Clark. Both died in or around Rolla, she in 1912 and her widower about 1924. Of the four children born to them Oscar died single about 1918; the other three are Ralph, Erna, single, and Leauna, wife of John DeCamp, all in or about Rolla.

George A. Bailey, son of Daniel, was married February 17, 1879, to Minnie, daughter of Frederick Wentzel (and sister to L. R. Wentzel). He had stores at Vichy and Pay Down in this county a number of years, moving to Oklahoma about 1906, and later to Portales, New Mexico, where both he and his wife died, the latter only a few years ago at the age of eighty. The children born to them moved west with their parents and their names and present addresses are not available here.

Martin Alonzo Bailey, the remaining son of Daniel, was married March 16, 1881, to Mary, daughter of William W. Moreland Senior, and both are long since dead as is Ida, one of their nine children; she married a Guffey and is survived by two children. The other eight, all believed to be yet living, are: Orvil at Rolla, Etta, wife of Walter Moreland, Luna, wife of James Chambers, Ora, wife of O. K. Worth, all in Maries and Phelps counties, and Minnie, wife of Walter Pierce, Lida, married name unknown, and Raymond and Brownlow, the last four all in St. Louis.

This leaves George and William Bailey, the sons of James Bailey Senior, unaccounted for. Such inquiry as was possible has been made concerning them and no descendants found. It could be that they died single or moved away in an early day.

PREFACE

This book would not have been possible without the assistance of many persons. To name them all is impossible, but to each of you my sincerest thanks.

Dr. J. M. Shockley, President of the Maries County Historical Society, has been the effective leader in this project. I wish to acknowledge his invaluable work—without him the book would not have been published.

The book is not current. No changes, other than minor editing corrections, have been made in the manuscript as left by my father.

A dedication in the usual sense is not possible. I feel he wrote it for the people of his home county with whom he spent his life.

Katheryn Louise King.

realize the extent of the task of assembling and checking thousands and thousands of facts about people, places, events, and dates such as this work contains, just try to organize similar information about a few generations of your own family.

We are indebted also to the Maries County Historical Society and particularly to its very active and effective president, Dr. J. M. Shockley, and his willing assistants for systematizing and typing the manuscript and for promoting pre-publication sales of the book sufficient to justify its publication. This last is a difficult task to be accomplished only by dint of persistent effort.

Furthermore, the Society has established at its Museum in Vienna a file of Maries County information for which this book forms the foundation. The organization hopes it will serve as a focal point and clearing house for all persons interested in such information. The Secretary will welcome and preserve additional verified information bringing these families and events down to date.

And, finally, every reader is indebted to Katheryn Louise King, the daughter of the author, for making the manuscript available and allowing it to be published.

One word of caution; please remember you are reading a book written for the most part in the late nineteen thirties and early nineteen forties; the statements made apply to people and circumstances as they then existed.

CHAPTER ONE

BEFORE SETTLEMENT

The first recorded appearance of anything connected with Maries County occurs about the year 1720 in the form of a map of the territory on which John Law's Mississippi Bubble was founded. Mister Law, after the fashion of most promoters, claimed everything in sight, and in order to have something to show his investors caused a map to be made of the country in which he proposed to make settlements, dig gold, and carry on other profitable operations. The map-maker knew of the Missouri and Mississippi rivers, of course, so he put them on the map. Father Marquette had described a river flowing into the Mississippi from the west below the mouth of the Missouri, which we know as the Meramec, so he put that on, too. He must have been told, or else imagined, that there might be other tributaries to a stream the size of the Missouri, so he let his hand wan-

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Everett Marshall King, son of J. B. and Lou Everett King, was born in Vienna, Missouri, November 28, 1876. He attended the public schools of his home community, but was largely self-educated. He read very widely, his greatest interest being in history. In early life he became interested in journalism and worked for a time in the printing business. He lived for a few years in St. Louis, but soon returned to his home community, established an Abstract and Insurance business, and spent the rest of his life here. He became an outstanding authority on titles and records, and the people of the county eagerly sought his advice in this field.

He also became recognized as an authority on the history of Maries County and its people. He was always understanding and sympathetic in his relations with the people because he had a deep affection and high esteem for them. So it was but natural that he became interested in writing the history of the county and its citizens. As early as 1908 he manifested an interest in such a project and in another decade was giving all his spare time to the research, the planning, and the writing of his history. He gave thirty-six of the best years of his life to this task. By 1944 his work was nearing completion and he had plans for publication in 1945. But his untimely going on the morning of December 22, 1944, left his life's dream unfulfilled.

The Maries County Historical Society and his many friends, in cooperation with Miss Lou King—his daughter and the owner of the manuscript--have united their efforts in the publication of his "A History of Maries County." This not only fulfills his dream, but given his life's work to the public and preserves the valuable history he has written.

Dr. J. M. Shockley, President
Maries County Historical Society

TO THE READER

Ramfre Press appreciates the opportunity to make available to those of you who are interested this book about the people and history of Maries County. The major contribution, of course, is that of the late Everett Marshall King who spent the spare hours of much of a lifetime gathering and organizing the information. With unflagging interest and painstaking care he searched for information and wrote of the people and area he knew and loved.

"He was the official historian and authority on 'family connections' for the whole county." Thus he characterized the place of Judge Joseph Mosby of a century ago. The statement very accurately described his own position a hundred years later.

The editing has been kept to a minimum, eliminating a few obvious repetitions, misspellings, et cetera. To some extent this is because the editor is unfamiliar with the families and the area written about, to some extent because Mr. King could not check and approve any corrections; but the primary reason was to keep the man in the book, to preserve Mr. King's personality as well as his ideas. Those of you who knew him personally will certainly recognize his incisive style and keen understanding, his particular and sometimes pungent way of phrasing things.

Always in such a book information is lacking that each of us would like to have; by their very nature such records can never be complete. Let us not criticize, but instead give thanks for the mass of information that has been preserved and organized for us. If you would

This book would not have been possible without the assistance of many persons. To name them all is impossible, but to each of you my sincerest thanks.

Dr. J. M. Shockley, President of the Maries County Historical Society, has been the effective leader in this project. I wish to acknowledge his invaluable work—without him the book would not have been published.

The book is not current. No changes, other than minor editing corrections, have been made in the manuscript as left by my father.

A dedication in the usual sense is not possible. I feel he wrote it for the people of his home county with whom he spent his life.

Katheryn Louise King.

they live at Newburg.

Clem Lawson, who was related to the other branches of the family, but in what degree we do not know, may have been the first of the name to settle here. If not, he certainly came here about the same time as the others. Nothing is known of his ancestry or that of his wife, and no birth, death, nor marriage dates have been preserved. He was the father of four children, all of whom lived in this county at one time or another; their age-order is not known.

Alex Lawson, his son, born August 5, 1842, served in the Confederate Army, married Ellen Duncan after the war closed, and died November 28, 1920. His nine children, all living at the last accounts, are: John C. of St. Louis; William F. of Joplin; Lindsay M. of Fredericktown; Roy H. and Mrs. C. E. Shepherd of Piedmont; George W. of Ellington; and Mrs. Nathan Lawson of Sudheimer, this county. The other two children, Edward A. Lawson and Mrs. Sarah E. Montgomery, live at Bauxite, Arkansas.

Lindsay Lawson, another son, is survived by the five children of his daughter, Ellen, wife of Laughlin Sherrill, both of whom are dead: Mary L., Amanda, Eva, wife of Ferd Healey, Isaac, and Claude, the first living in Chicago. A son, George Calvin Lawson, is the only descendant of Lindsay Lawson's second marriage.

Calvin Lawson, the third son, has been dead a great many years. His widow, Evelyn, died in Kansas City in 1940. They are survived by three children, William, Etta, and Mary Ellen, wife of Monroe Barnhart.

Nancy, the fourth child and only daughter of Clem Lawson, married Elisha Lee; she seems to have spent her whole married life and died in Miller County, leaving four children: Marion, Louis, Isaac, and Alice, who married a Machon.

CHAPTER FIFTY-THREE

LIGHT BAILEY FAMILIES

We do not know exactly when any of the pioneer members of the Light or Bailey families came to Maries County, but we do know that some, and maybe all of them, were here as early as 1834. This date is fixed by the recorded fact that Spring Creek Township was sectionized that year, and the surveyor records that the line between sections 28 and 29 ran through Light's field. The plat book shows this field to have been of considerable extent, much more than would ordinarily have been cleared in one year, so the first ones must have come anywhere from two to six years before 1834 (the six year limit is placed because no persons of these names appear on the Gasconade County tax list of 1828). None of the Lights entered the land platted as 'Light's Field,' and it is now owned by Lawrence and Simon Feeler and Mrs. Nannie Palmer, the the first two being great-grandchildren of Enoch Light.

There is a family tradition that Enoch Light was the first of the name to come here, and that he settled at what was known as the Alex Tune place later. He was followed in a few years by his widowed mother and his brothers, Wright and Flower Light. These are the only members of the family certainly known to have come here.

Another brother, Obadiah (Obe), stayed in Tennessee, and there is a tradition that they had a sister, but if she came here the fact is not reflected in any available record. The father, John Light, died before any of the family left Tennessee. Enoch is believed to have been the oldest child and Flower the youngest; all were married when they came. Wright's wife was Margaret (Peggy), daughter of James Bailey Senior, who likely came here at the same time. She was born November 16, 1806, and died October 11, 1868, and may have been the oldest child of the Bailey family. No birth, death, nor marriage dates of any of the others have been located.

(The platbook also notes that in 1834 a man named Brown lived on the site afterwards owned and lived on by William Davis Senior, now the site of the Davis Community Church. Davis' wife was a Brown, and as the dates were about the same and the sites close together, there may have been some connection between this family and the older Lights and Baileys).

Both Enoch Light and wife, maiden name unknown, have been dead more than seventy-five years, and none of their five children are now living. The only son, John, died single; Temperance Caroline (Tempy) married Thomas Davis Senior, and her descendants will be found under that name. Sarah was married to Joseph Reeves and was the mother of one son, Tony, who moved away about twenty years ago and is now out of touch with relatives here. Nancy married Isaac Rhodes and was the mother of two daughters, Lucy and Ida; the former married a Colvin; Ida's married name and the present addresses of both are not at hand. After the death of Mr. Rhodes, Nancy married John Murray, whom she also survived, no children being born of the last marriage. Her second husband was a sailor and had spent most of his active life in and about New Orleans. Catherine Light, the remaining child, married William H. Nelson, October 15, 1876, and has been dead a great many years, her husband passing away in 1941. Of their two children, Elzy lives in this county and Thomas in Tennessee.

Wright Light, believed to have been the second son, and his wife have been dead a great many years, their deaths occurring not far apart. They made their home in the general Spring Creek vicinity during all of their residence in this state. Of the twelve children born of their marriage, three, William, George, and Allen, died single and two, Lutita Melvina, second wife of Bud Goodnight, and Sarah, wife of John Thornton, died childless, both in this county. Most of the seven children who left descendants lived and died in Phelps County and their children are scattered so much that the following list may not be complete. The seven were: Elbin K., Enoch, Zebedee D., Val S., Caroline, Libbie, and Ellen Light.

Elbin K. Light married a Dotson and died on Mill Creek above Newburg; his children included Wesley, 'Boy,' and at least two more boys.

Enoch Light married Mattie Rinks in Phelps County and died somewhere along the Missouri River a great many years ago. His son, Roy, and his two daughters, Maud and Lovie, whose married names are unknown, all live in California.

Zebedee D. Light married Jane Overlease, and spent all his married life and died in Phelps County, as did his wife. So far as known there are seven living children: Otto and Georgia (married name unknown) in St. Louis; Virgil, Sadie and Della in California; Homer in Omaha, Nebraska; and Nellie who married a Smith and whose present address is not at hand. In addition, another son, James Light, married and left a son, Walter, and a daughter, Anna, married name unknown, also left descendants, all of whom are believed to be dead.

Val S. Light, old-time City Marshal of Rolla, who made good boys out of a number of that city's bad ones, was twice married. His first wife was Jennie Smith of Phelps County, by whom he was the father of one son, Frank, now in California. His second wife was Mary J. Moman. Of the four children of this marriage Alice is dead; she was married and left descendants but their names and addresses are not known here. Lula and probably Maud live in Chicago, and Ernie in this county.

Caroline, wife of A. L. Joice, twice County Judge of this county, spent her entire life and died near Veto in this county, near which her son, William, and one daughter, wife of Sherman Moreland, now live. The other daughter lives in either Detroit or Chicago.

Libbie Light married a Ray and spent most of her married life in Texas County where both she and her husband died. Her children, all now in California, include: Anna, Letitia, wife of Edward Wegman, Nannie, Ella, wife of Charles Baxter and Georgia, some of whom may be dead.

Ellen, the remaining child of Wright Light, married Thomas Dotson, also in Phelps County. Her children several years ago were: F. P., Bevina, Columbus, and Marion Dotson. We have no information as to their addresses or family circumstances.

Flower Light, the youngest of the three Light brothers and in his day a noted jockey at the old Spencer Mill Track, died at Vichy something like forty-five years ago, having been totally blind the last years of his life. His first wife, whom he married before leaving Tennessee and the mother of all his children, was a Rice. Their five children, not in age-order, were: John, William, George, Ellen, and Jane Light, all long since dead.

John married Lizzie Elder and not many years afterwards moved to the Boston Mountains in Arkansas, where he spent the remainder of his life and where he and his wife both died. At the time they left here they were the parents of two daughters, Sarah and Jane; nothing is known here of other descendants.

William Henson (Bud) Light married Mary Ford; they lived their entire lives and died in Spring Creek Township, childless.

George Light went to Texas in an early day where he married and spent the remainder of his life. Ellen married a Dr. Fancher and lived the remainder of her life in Kansas; nothing is known here of any descendants of either of them.

Jane Light, the remaining child, married John Hood. She died in this county in middle age, after which her widower and their children moved to Colorado, where he and two of the children, Robert and Nellie, died. The remaining children, Ralph, Lester, Della, wife of John Hibler, and Blanche, who married a man named Murchison, are thought to still live in that state.

Sometime after the death of his first wife, Flower Light was married to Eliza, widow of Jacob Love, nee Miller, daughter of Martin Miller, who survived him; no children were born of this marriage.

We have even fewer details about the Bailey family than we have about the Lights. James Bailey Senior was the ancestor of the family, coming here from Tennessee with or at least near the time the Lights came, and the record of one of his daughters, Margaret, is found in the Light section of this chapter. James seems to have lived on, or at least to have owned, the land on the south end of Lanes Prairie now owned by Ernest Rieka and Clarence Love, which he sold to John Love, Clarence' grandfather in 1840. This seems to be the only record of land owned by him and was more than likely his home place. Both he and his wife, Elizabeth (family name unknown) as well as one son, Alexander, were dead prior to 1866, the last dying either single or childless. The eight living children at that time were: Allen, George James, William, Daniel, Mary Ann, wife of Isaac Sands, Margaret, wife of Wright Light, and Lutitia, wife of Harmon H. Newberry.

We have no information as to Lutitia, the record being silent as to both her and her husband. It may be that they were among the first members of the Newberry to move to the western part of the state.

Mary Ann Bailey married Isaac Sands who was in some way related to the Joyce family. They probably never lived in this county after their marriage, the Sands home place being just off the Bourbeuse River above Royal in Phelps County. Both died there or near there before the Civil War, likely early in life, leaving three children. Of these 'Cos' disappeared during the Civil War and was never heard of thereafter; he was single at the time of his disappearance. The other two children, Hardin who married Jane Hance, and Elmira, wife of Ballard Hudgins, spent their married lives and died in Phelps County. Three of Hardin's five children, Minnie, wife of James King, Isaac, and Edward, also live in that county. Elmira, wife of James Wallace, lives in Iowa, and Charles Sands in St. Louis. Two of Elmira Hudgins' children, John and Dabney, also live not far from Newburg; the other two, Isaac and Thomas, are dead. The former married Hattie Niles and is survived by their six children: Clarence, Mrs. Clara Wehmeyer, Mrs. Hazel Yelton, Mrs. Stonewall Yelton, and one more girl, and a boy. Five children survive Thomas whose wife was Agnes Light: Louis, Claude, Ralph, Mrs. Inez Rinks, and Mrs. Blanche Weiss.

James Bailey, who was likely the oldest son of James Senior, married Nancy, daughter of George Moreland. We do not have his birth and death dates, but his wife was born in Tennessee in 1811 and died here in 1907. He died not later than early middle age and his widow later married Joseph Husband. The five children born of the Bailey marriage were: Jane, Margaret, Polly Ann, George, and William; Jane married James Riley and was the mother of two children, both of whom died without issue; Margaret married a Logan, address not now known, and became the mother of one son, Peter Logan; Polly Ann was twice married, first to a Graham by whom she was the mother of one daughter, Anna, who married William Tennyson; her second marriage was to John Tyler and of the six children born of the marriage Ellen, wife of John Fannon, died without issue; Evelyn, wife of Alfred Fannon, lives in Detroit and James, Clarence, John, and Elsie live around Belle.

We have no record of the birth and death dates of Allen Bailey and his wife nor her maiden name. Both have been dead many years, as have the three children born of the marriage of whom we have any record. His home place seems to have embraced the land now owned by Sherman Moreland and probably other land adjoining. The three children born of his marriage were Jane, Elkanah P., and Elbert. Jane married William Collins and was the mother of one child, also named Jane, who married in Oklahoma and whose married name is not at hand. After the death of Collins she married a man in Oklahoma named Bilyeu, but the latter marriage was childless.

Elkanah P. Bailey was born April 25, 1842 and died November 11, 1922. His wife, Louisa J., nee Hart, was born May 3, 1844, and died August 11, 1930. One child died in infancy, the eight living to maturity being: Daniel W., Mary M., wife of James Sigler; Ida, wife of Jeff Moreland; Robert L., H. T., Minnie, wife of J. Bert Hart; Margaret, widow of Jacob Crutts; and N. B. Bailey who died single.

Elbert Bailey married Martha Hayes and aside from the names of their children very little data have been gathered regarding them. The children include William and Wiley in Texas; George, two of whose daughters are thought to live around Jefferson City; Elkanah (Cain) at St. James; Wooster who lives around Holiness Camp Ground in this county; Bettie who married John Shanks and moved away; and Anna who died single.

Daniel Bailey, the best known of the sons of James Senior, was born June 10, 1825, and died March 11, 1866. His wife was Susan A. H., daughter of William Marcee. She was born March 17, 1831, and died March 2, 1877. Some years after the death of her first husband she married William Hayes; this second marriage being childless. Daniel Bailey was at one time or another owner of considerable land in both this and Phelps counties, part of his activities being in partnership with his brother, Allan, and part of them by himself. He left a large estate, both in real and personal property, and as all his children were minors at the time of his death the estate was in Probate Court fifteen years or more. The six children born of his marriage and living at the time of his death were John P., James Wiley, William A., George A., Martin A., and Nigaria A. Bailey. Nigaria, the only daughter, married L. R. Wentzel, April 12, 1878 and is now dead. Her husband, an old-time schoolteacher in this county and in Illinois and later for sixteen years Circuit Clerk and Recorder of Gasconade County, lives in St. Louis. The six children born to them all yet living are: Mattie, wife of Ira Meyers of Morton, Texas; Mrs. Dina Copeland, Urich, Missouri; Mrs. Mabel McGehee, Kennett, Missouri; Austin F. of 2748 Hermitage Avenue, and Stella and Dr. Louis R. Wentzel Junior, both of 2726 Chouteau Avenue. The last three are in St. Louis.

John P. Bailey married Arminta Beckham, December 13, 1880, and his brother, William A. Bailey, married

Mary M. Duke, June 27, 1880. The descendants of these brothers are not known.

James Wiley Bailey may have been married twice, but the offspring of only one marriage is at hand. This was to Martha A. E. Clark (daughter of Frances Hodge, mother of John Hodge, et al., by her second marriage which was to Stephen Clark. Both died in or around Rolla, she in 1912 and her widower about 1924. Of the four children born to them Oscar died single about 1918; the other three are Ralph, Erna, single, and Leauna, wife of John DeCamp, all in or about Rolla.

George A. Bailey, son of Daniel, was married February 17, 1879, to Minnie, daughter of Frederick Wentzel (and sister to L. R. Wentzel). He had stores at Vichy and Pay Down in this county a number of years, moving to Oklahoma about 1906, and later to Portales, New Mexico, where both he and his wife died, the latter only a few years ago at the age of eighty. The children born to them moved west with their parents and their names and present addresses are not available here.

Martin Alonzo Bailey, the remaining son of Daniel, was married March 16, 1881, to Mary, daughter of William W. Moreland Senior, and both are long since dead as is Ida, one of their nine children; she married a Guffey and is survived by two children. The other eight, all believed to be yet living, are: Orvil at Rolla, Etta, wife of Walter Moreland, Luna, wife of James Chambers, Ora, wife of O. K. Worth, all in Maries and Phelps counties, and Minnie, wife of Walter Pierce, Lida, married name unknown, and Raymond and Brownlow, the last four all in St. Louis.

This leaves George and William Bailey, the sons of James Bailey Senior, unaccounted for. Such inquiry as was possible has been made concerning them and no descendants found. It could be that they died single or moved away in an early day.

Martin Baley to Michael Maltsbarger 76 acres, $450. Reg. June 20, 1839. Martin Baley to John Bailey, 150 acres, $900. on Lick Creek, Reg. June 20, 1839. Total 566 acres $3350. Same date. He was not listed in the 1840 census, so he must have left Greene County about this time for parts unknown.

We cannot definitely identify the above Baileys, but since the Martins, Waddles and Baileys were related by marriage in Fauqueir County, Va., and we know some of them came to Greene County, we are assuming without proof, that they were all from Virginia. James, John and Martin may have been brothers.

have tried to confine this data to genealogy, and a final word of our own.

In 1953, I rode on the bus from Boone to N. Wilkesboro, North Carolina with Prof. Dougherty, President of North Carolina State College at Boone. The Prof. was a very old, but distinguished and interesting gentleman, who knew his history. I listened with great interest to him talk about the early settlement of Western North Carolina and East Tennessee.

He said Daniel Boone lived at Boone for 9 years, 1761 to 1769. He said that his father had later bought the Boone place, and that he, himself had sold or given away as souvenirs the last chips of stone out of the old Boone chimney. This is not generally known.

The Beech Treee on which "D. Boon CILLED A, BAR On Tree in THE YEAR 1760," has long since fallen, and every sprig of it has been carried away as souvenirs to all parts of the United States; and a stone monument and plaque has been raised in its place. It is about one and a half miles above where the Kingsport-Johnson City highway crosses Boone's Creek, the first creek west of Boone's Creek School.

I was in New Brunswick, New Jersey, about 20 miles this side of New York and met a lady (foreign born) in the clerks office, who had not long been in the States, and when I told her I was from Kingsport, Tenn., she exclaimed: "O, you are from the Daniel Boone country," and began to ask many questions, most of which I could not answer. I explained that most of the people of this section knew very little about Boone, and some of them had scarcely heard of him. She was greatly surprised, and I quoted a passage in the Bible: "A Prophet is not without honor save in his own country and among his own people."

But when I told her he was my uncle by marriage, several times removed, she was very attentive to show me how to find the information I was looking for, just as tho I was important.

Morgan Bryan was the great stem of the Bryan families of Virginia, North Carolina and Kentucky. His wife was a Hollander, whose parents had migrated from France to escape religious persecution. Her mother died at sea, leaving three children who were provided for by their shipmates until they came of age.

The children of Morgan and Martha Strode Bryan were: Joseph, Eleanor, Mary, Samuel, Morgan, John, William, James, Thomas, Sarah and Rebecca. The brothers, William, James, and Morgan joined Daniel Boone in one of his expeditions into what is now the state of Kentucky.—"Brianiana" by Edward Bryan.

Many books have been written on the Boones and Bryans of Kentucky, which may be found in most libraries, many interesting facts and stories which would be impractical to repeat here. For Bailey connection see Samuel Bailey, p ? ? ?.

BOONE GENEALOGY

So much has been written about Daniel Boone that we find it difficult to add anything here, except in the way of genealogy. Many historians have writtten elaborately, and I might add. confusingly of him. Many statements made of him are perhaps imaginary. I wonder if "Uncle Dan'l" as thousands called him, were here today and hear some of the wild stories about him, would not blush, and, as he once said, "I wouldn't believe that story if I told it myself." But all agree that he was the most celebrated frontiersman in America. One authoritative historian said, "Daniel Boone has transcended in fame every American but Washington." As I am not trying to write history, let it rest here.

Just a short Pedigree of the Boone Family as gleaned from many writers:

The family of Boone apparently begins with one George Boone I, who was born in England about 1625 or earlier, married and died there. He had a son George II, born about 1646 or earlier. He was a blacksmith by trade. He married in England about 1665, Sarah Uppen, and died there, age sixty years. They had at least one son George III, who was born 1666 at Stoak, near Exeter, Devonshire, England, a weaver by trade who went to a neighboring town to pursue his calling.

There he married Mary Maugridge (they were Quakers) and nine children, all born in England, and all emigrated to America where George III died in 1744, in Pennsylvania. His wife, Mary, born 1669, in Brandnich, (Bardnich or Bradwich), England, married there about 1668, and died in Pennsylvania Feb. 2, 1740. They had nine children:

1. George Boone IV.
2. Sarah Boone, married Jacob Stover, a German.
3. Squire Boone, born Nov. 25, 1696, married Sarah Morgan (1720) at Gwynedd Meeting House with a Quaker ceremony.
4. Mary Boone, married James Webb.
5. John Boone, died unmarried.
6. Joseph Boone.
7. Benjamin Boone, married Susannah.....
8. James Boone, married Mary Foulks.
9. Samuel Boone.

All except John married and raised families.

The three oldest children had come to America earlier, about 1712-1713, to see if it was a place suitable for the whole family to live. One of them went back to England with a good report, and the rest of the family came over in August, 1717.

George Boone IV. was born in Bradnich, England, July 3, 1690, died in America Nov. 20, 1753. He was one of the nine children landing at Philadelphia, Oct. 10, 1717, and was one of the three who had visited Pennsylvania earlier. He married Deborah, daughter of William Howell, 1713. She was born Aug. 1691, died Jan. 26, 1759.

Their children were:

1. George Boone V. (Fifth in a direct line) born 1713 or 1714, died unmarried in 1730.
2. Mary Boone, born 1716, married Isaac Lee.
3. Hannah Boone, born 1718, died 1753, married George Hughes and had children: Boone, Jen, Samuel Boone Hughes, and perhaps others.
4. Deborah Boone, born 1720.
5. Dinah Boone, born 1722, married ..... Williams, and had Abner Williams, and married second, ... Coates and had Solomon Cotes.
6. William Boone, born 1724, married Sarah Lincoln and had eight children: Jeremiah, William, George, Thomas, Hezekiah, Abigail, Mary and Mordicai.

7. Joseph Boone, born 1726, married ..... and had at least one son, George, and possibly others.
8. Jeremiah Boone, born 1728.
10. Hezekiah Boone, born 1743?
11. Sarah Boone, married David Wilcoxen.
12. Nathan Boone.

Squire Boone, son of George and Mary Maugridge Boone was born in Bradnich, England, Nov. 26, 1696. He was one of the three oldest of the family who were sent to America preceding the family emigration in 1717. He married Sarah, daughter of John Morgan, July 23, 1720, at the Gwynedd Meeting House, according to the Quaker ceremony. The name "Squire" is not a title, as Esquire, but it seems to become a family name. Squire Boone was dismissed from the Quaker Church in 1748 because he gave his approval to his son Isreal Boone, for marrying "out of the church." It is believed for this reason he left Exeter, Berks County, Pennsylvania and moved in 1750, to North Carolina, and settled at Holman's Ford, later Boone's Ford, on the Yadkin River. This was the same community where Morgan Bryan then lived. It is to this circumstance that his son Daniel Boone, the most famous of the name, became a pioneer of North Carolina, Tennessee and Kentucky mountains. Squire and Sarah (Morgan) Boone died in North Carolina, and are buried in Joppa Cemetery near the present site of Mocksville, now Davie County.

Their children, 12 in all, perhaps born in Pa.; they were:

1. Sarah Boone, born April 7, 1724, died 1824, married John Wilcoxen.
2. Isreal Boone, born March 9, 1726, married about 1748, "out of the church" which for Squire's approval, was dismissed.
3. Samuel Boone, born March 22, 1728, married Sarah Day.
4. Jonathan Boone, born Oct. 6, 1730.
5. Elizabeth Boone, born Dec. 5, 1732, married William Grant, born 1720.
6. Daniel Boone, born Sept. 22, 1734.
7. Mary Boone, born Sept. 3, 1736, married first, William Bryan, and second, General Charles Smith.
8. George Boone, born Nov. 2, 1739.
9. Edward Boone, born Sept. 1740.

10. Nathan Boone.
11. Squire Boone.
12. Hannah Boone, born Aug. 1, 1746, died 1820, married 1st John Stuart, who died 1770. They had four children. She married 2nd. Richard Pennington and had Richard Pennington and perhaps others.

Daniel Boone was the 6th child of Squire and Sarah (Morgan) Boone. He was born 1734 in that part of Philadelphia County, Pa. which became Berks County in (1745). He came with his parents to, what was later called Boone's Ford, on the Yadkin River, North Carolina during the year 1750. Morgan Bryan had moved from near Winchester, Va. to the Yadkin two years earlier, 1748.

Daniel Boone married Rebecca, daughter of Morgan Bryan 1755, his father Squire Boone, then a Justice of the Peace in Rowan County, officiating. They both died in Missouri, she in 1813, and he in 1820, in St. Charles, at the home of his grandson, Nathan Boone. Their bodies were reinterred in Frankfort, Kentucky.

There were born to Daniel and Rebecca (Bryan) Boone 10 children:

1. James Boone, born May 5, 1757, killed by Indians.
2. Isreal Boone, born 1759, killed by Indians.
3. Susannah Boone, born Nov. 2, 1760, married William Hays.
4. Jemima Boone, born Oct. 4, 1762, married Flanders Calloway and had 10 children.
5. Lavina Boone, born March 13, 1776, married Joseph Echoll.
6. Daniel Morgan Boone, born 1768, married Sarah Lewis, and is said to be the first settler in Kansas.
7. Rebecca Boone, born 1770, married Phillip Goe. or Coe.
8. Jesse Bryan Boone, born 1773, married Chloe Van Bibber, daughter of Capt. John Van Bibber.
9. William Boone, born June 1775, died young.
10. Nathan Boone, born 1781, married Olive Van Bebber, buried at Ash Grove, Missouri.
    We cannot vouch for correctness of all the dates above. They were taken from several different authors, which in some cases conflicts.

Many books have been written about Daniel Boone, and many of the stories conflicting, especially some dates and places. We

ESTATE OF COLONEL DANIEL KENNEDY

On 30 October 1806, Daniel Kennedy, Jr, an heir, asked for a division of (father's) land. GREENE COUNTY COURT MINUTES.

On 25 October 1808 John Kennedy was appointed guardian to Allen Kennedy and George Washington Kennedy, minor orphans under 14 until partition of Daniel Kennedy's (deceased) land is made. Many references to the estate settlement is recorded in Greene County Court records.

According to land records of Greene County, Tennessee, on 7 November 1808 the six sons (John, Thomas, William, Daniel, Allen and George Kennedy) were named in an estate settlement of Daniel Kennedy's estate. One daughter (Margaret Kennedy) and sons-in-law: Rezin Rawings and James Bailey were named.

John Kennedy, older brother, was named guardian of Allen, George and Margaret Kennedy who were minors at the time of Col Daniel Kennedy's death.

Gen 7 - Administration of James Bailey's estate by his son James Bailey in Crawford Co., MO.

Generation Seven

ELIZABETH KENNEDY

1. History of Maries County by Everett Marshall King, pp. 565-569 (attached to Generation Six): James Bailey Family - mentions son Alexander. That Alexander Bailey did not die single and childless is proven in Generation Six and that the Alexander Bailey of which I speak is the same Alexander Bailey found in King's book is also proven in Generation Six.

2. Everett King did not know the maiden name of Elizabeth, the wife of James Bailey. This we find in Roster of Soldiers and Patriots of the American Revolution Buried in Tennessee, 1974, compiled by Lucy Womack Bates, Chairman, p. 227: Children of Daniel Kennedy includes Elizabeth Kennedy, born 8-21-1790, m. James Bailey.

3. Greene County, Tennessee Marriage Records: James Bailey and Elizabeth Kennedy, December 18, 1804.

4. Land Records of Greene Co., Tennessee, 7 Nov 1808: Settlement of Daniel Kennedy's estate:
   To James Bailey 140 acres whereon he lives on Nolichucky River.

4. By 1840, James Bailey is in Crawford County, Missouri and is enumerated on the census with a wife and six others in the household. The area where he lived eventually became a part of Maries County which explains the inclusion of his family in Mr. King's book.

5. Crawford County, Missouri Letters of Administration, Vol. A 1837-1864;
   7 November 1845, p. 57: James Bailey died intestate. Administration of estate granted to his son James Bailey.
   17 November 1845, p. 62: Security bond for James Bailey as executor of estate of James Bailey deceased. On oaths of:
   James Bailey
   H.H. Newbury
   John James
   William Moreland
   Thomas Moreland
   Elias Moreland

   History of Maries County by Everett Marshall King, pp. 566-567: Lutitia, daughter of James Bailey married Harmon H. Newberry and his son James Bailey, Jr. married Nancy Moreland, daughter of George Moreland.
   p. 597: About the family of George Moreland - Elias Moreland and Thomas Moreland, sons of George Moreland.
   p. 607: Nancy Moreland...daughter of George Moreland, married first, James Bailey, son of the James Bailey who was an ancestor of that name in this county.

   Therefore, H.H. Newbury, Elias Moreland and Thomas Moreland were brothers-in-law of James Bailey, son of, and administrator of, the deceased James Bailey.

Therefore, we have proven for James Bailey:
died about 1845 - Crawford County, MO married Elizabeth Kennedy - Greene County, Tennessee - 18 Dec 1804 is the same James Bailey who had a son named Alexander in King's History of Maries County and for Elizabeth Kennedy we have proven:

born 21 Aug 1790 - Greene County, Tennessee

ALEXANDER BAILEY

1. History of Greene County, Missouri, Western Historical Co., 1883, p. 670: "Miss Betsy Ann, daughter of Alexander and Margaret Bailey, of this county, formerly of Tennessee."

2. Marriage record of Alexander Bailey and Margaret Paulsell - Greene County, Tennessee, minister's return signed by Margaret Paulsell's brother John Paulsell.

3. Alexander and Margaret Paulsell Bailey were still in Greene County, Tennessee in 1836 as proven by the non cupative will of Polly Kelly, who died at their home, and which they witnessed:

   Greene County, Tennessee Wills 1783-1890 by Golden Fillers Burgner, p. 43

4. By 1840, Alexander and Margaret Paulsell Bailey were in Pulaski County, MO:

   1840 Pulaski County, MO Census, p. 206: Alexander Bailey, age 20-30 (therefore born 1800-1810). Next door is brother Allen Bailey, brother of Alexander Bailey, and Alexander's sister Mary Ann Bailey Paulsell who had married Margaret's brother John Paulsell, the minister, (Greene County, Tennessee Marriage Record). By this time, John Paulsell is dead as related in Biographical Sketches of Citizens of Greene County, Missouri, p. 61: E.D. Paulsell...His father ... married Mary Ann Bailey. E.D. was the youngest of four children...his father, John Paulsell, died in the fall of 1838." Next door to Mary Ann is Catherine Paulsell, sister of Margaret and John Paulsell.

5. History of Maries County by Everett Marshall King, pp. 565-569: Mr. King's work is a good point of reference but he did not have all of the information regarding Alexander Bailey and his family at his disposal. But we will begin with his information: James Bailey Family: mentions wife Elizabeth and son Alexander Bailey. Mr. King was mistaken that Alexander Bailey died single or childless by 1866, as evidenced by his marriage license to Margaret Paulsell in Greene County, TN, and his presence on the 1840 Pulaski County, MO census where he is enumerated with a wife and two children and living in close proximity to his brother Allen as well as his wife's Paulsell relatives.

   However, Alexander Bailey is dead by 1850, because Margaret Bailey is found on the 1850 Greene County, MO census as head of the household with one son living at home and daughter Betsy Ann, now married to George W. Britain, living next door.

   To prove that this is the same Margaret Paulsell who married Alexander Bailey, and who came to Missouri from Greene County, Tennessee, we will look first at Greene County Tennessee Chancery Court Minutes, February 1850, p. 205: John Delaney vs Heirs at law of David Delaney. David Delaney was the uncle of Margaret Paulsell and died single and without issue. His sister Elizabeth Delaney married David Paulsell. Elizabeth Delaney Paulsell was dead in 1850 and the lawsuit names her children as heirs and include Margaret, Henry, Catharine, Henry, Ann and Newton, of Missouri. This connects Margaret Paulsell Bailey back to Greene County, Tennessee and supports that she is the same person who was married to Alexander Bailey, with her brother John Paulsell officiating at the ceremony.

Now we will look at the 1850 Greene County, MO census, p. 290, line 13: Margaret Bailey, age 47, born Tennessee. Living several doors down are her brothers Henry and Nathan Paulsell, who were both named in the Greene County, Tennessee Chancery Court record.

Therefore, we have proven for Alexander Bailey:

born - 1800-1810 - Tennessee
died - bef 1850 - Missouri
married Margaret Paulsell - Greene County, Tennessee 8 dec 1829

6. Greene County Missouri Cemeteries, Vol. VII, p. 65, Wade Chapel Cemetery:

Bailey, Margaret, died 12 Feb 1868, ae 68 yr.

On the same page are her brothers Henry and Nathan.

Therefore, we have proven for Margaret Paulsell Bailey:

born 1803-1805 - Tennessee
died 12 Feb 1868 - Greene County, Missouri

Dear Ed & All Cousins,

Thank you for the Tax & Marriage information and your quick reply. I did have all the Marriages that you listed BUT one. That one may be a big help to my family (see later). I hope I didn't bust the balloon to badly regarding the Samuel KENNEDYS of WA Co. and I do hope that part of your theory is correct. (see later)

I hope that you had a great trip. We loved Arizona and will retire there in about 2 years.
I also hope that we may be able to meet when you are here in April. We live just a few miles from Seatac. It is really easy to get from here to the airport and wondered if you might have time to come by either on your way in or way out, or I would be happy to meet you at the airport. Give it some thought, and if you think you might have some time while you are here, let me know.

My "wonderful printer" is on the fritz again and I refuse to put more money into it. Will buy a new one this weekend, but wanted to try and get this in the mail before then, so please excuse the "funny marks" on the pages.

Please find enclosed a composite of all the KENNEDYS that I know of that resided in the Greene Co. WA Co. area from 1778 until the 1830's. I have included "some" of the information that we have on each, some questions and some ideas. I hope that you will all send me back your ideas, thoughts and add anyone that you think that I have missed with information about them.

First, some observations on:
Samuel KENNEDYS WA CO. TN
1830
We know that there are 2. A older one and a younger one.
1830 WA Co. Census Records show 2 Samuel KENNEDYS.
Roll #175 Pg. 205 males 0-0-0-0-1 females 2-0-0-0-1
Samuel 20 to 30, wife 20 to 30.
This fits the younger Samuel, even gives him 2 young daus. m. in Martha Massingale in 1825
So I think it is this Sam~~uel~~ giving his young dau. a "companion" personal slave.
I also think it is him on the 1830 tax list with "no land" 1WP & 2 BP (need to know if he is in same area as Atty. John, John C. & Thomas).
I also found the following Masonic Bible Record (on a page I had Dessie copy out of one of the Sold issues of WAGS) when I was "combing my issues" with a fine tooth comb.
Samuel R. KENNEDY b. 13 Dec 1801 Birth recorded in Rhea Lodge # 47 F. &A.M. Bible Jonesboro, TN.
Lodge was chartered in 1823, but does not say when Samuel joined. (have to be 21)
A J. Howard birth is listed - b. 10 Nov., 1795 (remember a Jacob Howard witnessed the deed for the slaves?)

Roll #175 Pg. 205 males 1-3-2-1-1-0-1 females 0-0-0-2-2-1
Samuel 40 to 50 - my Samuel b. Dec. 1780 in 1830 would be 50.
Wife 30 to 40 - Frankey b. 20 Jun 1785 in 1830 would be 45.

Now it has been the kids that had me confused as didn't really ALL fit, but as usual, I was dense. I did not take into consideration extended families. I could even think that the census taker or Frankey "blew" her age.
From my family Bible Record

	Birth	Marriage	Age in 1830
Nancy	b 26 Dec 1802	m. 4 Sep 1822 Robert A(Eakin) d. 12 Aug. 1825 TN.(dead by 1830)
Elizabeth	b. 1 Jan 1806	no marriage listed.	24	2 f. - 20 to 30
Joseph M.	b.. 29 Jan 1808	" " "	22
Margaret	b. 5 Oct 1809	m.1829 Charles NEAL	21
John K.	b. 19 May 1811		19	1 m - 20/30?
m. 7 Oct 1830 Sarah STEELE (no record) dau. of James & Mary STEELE
Mary Ann	b. 8 Jun 1813	m. D. CROWELL 1834	17	2 f. - 14 to 20
Jane	b. 8 Sep 1814	m. Mecsac HALE 1831	16
James M.	b. 29 Sep 1816	d. 1842	14	2 m. - 10 to 15
Samuel	b. 14 Jun 1818		12
William S.	b. 2 Jul. 1820		10	3 m. - 5 to 10
Robert A.	b. 12 Jul. 1822		8

This is only 2- 5 to 10 and none under 5.
One reason that I wasn't sure that the census family was mine is because of the # of young males. Now add in the 2 from the Harrison Co. IGI, that aren't in Bible.

Mathew S.	b. 20 Oct 1824	6
Thomas Simpson	b. 21 Jul. 1828	2	1 m. under 5

It still doesn't match exactly, but I have found very few that do. With the addition of the 2 young boys, it matches as close as one usually gets before 1850. 3 of his dau's marriages listed in the Bible are found with the right dates etc. in WA Co., so I believe the Older Samuel KENNEDY living in WA Co after 1815 is mine, removing from Greene to WA then the family goes to IN.
I really think that John K. & Joseph were off exploring the west by the time they were 17/18. Seems to be a trend of John K's, and I think he may have started young. The male 20/30 could even be a son-in-law instead of John K. We have totally lost Joseph!!!!!!!

The Marriage I didn't have:
*John McCall to Elizabeth KENNEDY 2/04/1829 (I have 2 Marriage lists and it isn't on either.)
The reason I say that this is important is as follows.
The 1850 Census of Morgan Co. IL has:

Samuel	b. Jul. 1818	m. Eliza Coen (shows in 1850 Morgan Co. IL census with wife Eliza - children Francis, age 7, William 5, & George 2.
William	b. Jul. 1820	m. Mary (Elizabeth) Arnold
	1850 Morgan Co. IL census shows Elizabeth KENNEDY living w/ John Arnold. son
William age 2 w/her.
Robert	b. Jul. 1822	m. Sepohonia abt.1847
	Morgan 1850 census shows Robert age 28, living next to Samuel.
	Sepohonia & 2 yr. old son Matthew. Also living with him a Thomas Simpson
	KENNEDY & William McCall, relationships unknown.

Elaine & I have wondered who this William McCall and Thomas Simpson KENNEDY could be.]
Could William McCall be the son of John & Elizabeth Kennedy McCall.???
The IGI from Ohio also lists Mathew S. KENNEDY b. Oct. 1824 and Thomas Simpson KENNEDY. b. Jul. 1828 as children of Samuel and Frankey. I wonder if Thomas living w/Robert isn't the Thomas Simpson KENNEDY from the Ohio IGI.

Capt. Steele
Have any of you ever seen the given name of Capt. Steele of the Tax District the KENNEDYS lived in.? Sarahs parents according to the Bible were James and Mary Steele. I have seen James Steele in Greene Co. Court Min.? If We ever get the KENNEDYS straightened out, I will work on that.

I have sent a letter to all the people that were cross-reference in the Greene Co. Pioneer, with names that are connected to the KENNEDYS in Greene to see if they happen to know anything.
TAYLOR, RICHEY, MCCALL, SIMPSON, GILLIS, ARMSTRONG, WILSON, HALE/HAILE, STEELE, A(E)IKEN, MARTIN, LOYD, NEAL. I don't hold much hope that they will be able to give us any information but thought it was worth a try.
I am also trying to find the 1797 to 1804 Greene Co. Ct. Min.
Other than that, I think that I just don't know where to look for more documents? It seems like Ed and Margaret have combed the co[redacted]. If we just had a clue on where they were before Greene, it might help. From 1760 to 1778, General Dans & Johns' families/family had to be somewhere.

Mary KENNEDY of Frederick Co.

I: I have to tell you that this will & the land transactions etc. intrigue me for more than just "family finding". I find it very interesting -- JUST as a COLONIAL LAW problem.) So bear with me on this:
Ed, you briefly discussed the "Lack of Dower" of Mary in Frederick Co.
ie: that they never brought the land to grant is why she wasn't of record, relinquishing dower.
A. The way Lord Fairfax worked (or didn't <g>), the "survey could be sold". You could sell a survey anytime, It did not have to be granted to sell it. ie: John & Daniel sell surveyed land to Snively. Snively then has to get it granted. I have seen a survey sold 2 or 3 times before some got Fairfax to grant it. So we could have the "survey" bought by Daniel KENNEDY from someone else, surveyed for a KENNEDY and sold again before the grant was issued in the last buyers name. I think we need to look at surveys, not grants.

B. Another thing is that Mary KENNEDY may have remarried and I may have missed her signing dower rights in the minutes only looking for KENNEDYS???. I don't know if she would have mention that KENNEDY was her name before, or only relinquish dower in her 2nd married name.

C. The other sad thing about the records for these lands is that their conveyance DID NOT go through the Frederick Co. Ct.s but through the Proprietors OFFICE. I am not sure when that changed, but some time after the War. Some "smart" people in Frederick etc. not only got there surveys, grants etc. from Lord Fairfax but had enough smarts/legal advice etc. to Record them in the Frederick Co. Records. Those people sure made life easier for their descendents. REMEMBER that Lord FAIRFAX land did not belong to the Colony of VA, was not granted the way other VA land was.
Note: In Seattle we have a area of land which is also STILL not LEGALLY recorded in the Co. Rec. It can be very confusing to those that buy in that area. The conveyance is legally recorded in a "Land TRANSFER Book". The "smart ones" also record in KING Co. BUT you cannot just record in KING. It has to be in that book to be legal!!!

D. Daniel does not turn 21 until 1771. She would have no reason to relinquish her dower right until then?? Is that right? (or even then) Mary got dower rights to 1/3 until death!!! I. Nothing was said in Daniels will about "until remarriage". Then the dower 1/3 went to son DANIEL only when she DIED. So the only reason she would relinquish dower to the land is if she wants to give the land to Daniel when he is 21, free of the life estate of DOWER so he could sell it etc. Other than that, she can stay until she dies. Land becomes Daniels or Daniels heirs by law on her death.
Look at the possibilities that this raises!!!!!!!!!!!!

1. So, if she remarried and stayed there she could still be living on it when Gen. Dan dies??? (not probable BUT possible???)
   It SEEMS that Thomas & Daniel are Marys, the others from a 1st wife. Thomas buys land in 1766 so say he was 2. . 1745, just 21 when he buys it. Mary is 16 when she m. old Daniel. Mary b. abt. 1729. That would make her in her 40's when Daniel turns 21. Maybe even in her 50's if she is older when she marries Old Daniel. She could live until she is 70. Note that it looks that Thomas never married, or if he did he had no children alive in 1798 when he dies. (Robert cannot be his son as Robert got his land BEFORE Thomas got his)

2. Thomas had rights to 1/3 IF he stayed with mother and turned 21. So why is his 1/3 never taken to grant, but he BUYS land in 1766 & takes it immediately to Grant????????
   Where d[redacted] the MONEY????????

Wait a minute, we don't know if Thomas ever sold his share. It would not be in Frederick Co. Records, it would be in The Proprietors Records. Most of the "Books" written on the NNLGrants are about the Grants, and do not include records of ALL of the Surveys!!!!.
We have the copy of Thomas' 1766 GRANT, including the people it was originally surveyed for.
I have never requested a "survey" for Thomas KENNEDY that he could have sold before it was granted.
The Grant could be in someone else's name.

3. John & Daniel ONLY sell the land next to Great Wagon RD. No mention of Thomas.
4. Why does Daniel get part of Johns?
    a. Could Mary do that to insure that Daniel rec.. some funds for his future???
    Obviously John is selling this with Marys blessing, or the court would not allow it to stand as the Sale involved the name of the underage Daniel & Mary should be his guardian. The court records do not show an appointment of a guardian for Thomas and Daniel, so I "assumed" she was. (What if John really is??) That is possible if John was 21 when Old Dan died. ?????? That may be why John was John was able to sell it without Mary signing for Daniel.?????
5. Could our friend Old Daniel have 3 pieces of property.??
    a. Could Mary have made a "deal" with John for him & Daniel to take that land as their part of the inheritance and leave her and Daniel on the "home place".?? & another for Thomas???

II: Questions & Thoughts about VA Dower. (Not all states were the same).
In my "Women & the Law of Property" also has this little bit of info.
If a women remarried, they could not devise or convey dower property..!!!!! (Nor could their new hubby.)
ONLY the heirs could when 21 & she is dead. They have to keep it INTACT.
IF Mary remarried, Her new husband had control of her dower land UNTIL she dies. If the heir becomes 21 and & as long as she is alive, she and new hubby just continue to live on it.
The heir, can sell the land to someone else but buyer has to accept it with life estate for Mary.
 There is a case in Augusta Co. involving Thomas KENNERLY, (The guy that Curtis thought was Thomas KENNEDY, a relative of his Joseph and William. Gay & I both believe that he is a KENNERLY!!)
Old Thomas dies, leaves wife her dower (since it was her daddies land to begin with) Has sons James & Thomas and they want to leave and get rid of the property, so he sells it. OPPS, mama and her new hubby have rights to live on it until mama dies. This then results in a "law suit" many years later when the heirs of 2nd hubby "think" they have rights to land they all have been living on, they guy that bought it thinks he does. That is why a Thomas comes from Carolina to testify in the case.
In fact today, you can still do the same thing. Sell property with "life estate" attached. Many times it is a way for an older person to have a income and still remain in their home. (It can still cause legal problems if not done properly) and can tie up the land & make obligations for the heirs of the buyers.

In this case, Gen. Daniel does not turn 21 until about 1771.

A. Mama CANNOT sell the property until then even if she wants to. .
Then, Mama does NOT HAVE to turn the land over to Daniel until SHE DIES!!!
This is the ISSUE that hadn't really sunk in about the "Dower Land".
So let us consider some of the many possibilities that can happen if she remarries.
The way I read it,
New hubby has "control" of use of land without waste, (must pay taxes, can't cut trees etc. until Daniel is 21 & Mary dies).???? Then Daniel can have it.
1. Now what happens if Mary and new hubby want to leave Frederick, say in 1767/8. They can't sell Daniels land!!!!
    1. If hubby has his own money and land then would they not just vacate the dower land, taking the youngest son Daniel with them???? Maybe or maybe not paying taxes on it in the ensuing years.??? Say its still a survey, they may not even pay their taxes or fees to Lord Fairfax and it just falls through the cracks in the system and is eventually granted to someone else. Lord Fairfax doesn't give a rip that this land is suppose to be held intact for Daniel. His land is not controlled by Frederick Co. Ct. and if Mary and hubby leave even the court wouldn't care. He only cares about his pocket book and would love to sell the land AGAIN. ONLY DANIEL can do anything about it by bringing suit.

2. What happens if she remarries and dies before DANIEL turns 21? New hubby could be appointed Daniels guardian or a legal age brother. Daniel could even pick his guardian if he is 16. Then Daniel would be able to get land when he turned 21, no matter where he is. BUT he or his guardian would have to go to Lord Fairfax or the Court and ask for it to be put in his name.

B. Now what if by 1771/2 Daniel has been elsewhere and does not even want the land???? Say he has already found his land in Greene. He's been away at WAR with his buddies Seiver and Shelby. They all decide that they want to settle in Greene. He could just go to Mama, say he doesn't want claim to the land & she can pay him off and she & new hubby apply to Fairfax for the GRANT in their name. He could even sign a quit claim deed to Mamas' new hubby. (there would be a record of that).
Was it not true that if members of a family make "private" deals as to the disbursements of their estates, that unless a disgruntled family member appeals to the court that most of these "private deals" stand???

We had the following case involving our family. Originally there are 2 males and 1 female heir in Grannys will. Both male heirs die before Granny, one married with 2 children, one single. After their deaths, Granny rewrites her will, leaving everything to the female heir. Now Granny dies. Female heir & Adm. of estate feels that married brothers wife and children should also share in the estate since they were married over 40 yrs. She then receives the estate BUT then divides it in 1/2, giving some to herself, some to brothers wife and dividing rest with Grannys Grandchildren. She feels that Granny did not MEAN to leave brothers children and wife out. Fair - Yes. Would most people do it. NO. She felt that Granny did NOT have GOOD LEGAL advice when writing the new will after brothers death. Actually thought the advice should have been to skip her generation & and give all to grandchildren. (already grown.)
Now, if one of the children of Female heir felt cheated, they could take female to court and say that female heir did not act in way will was intended, and did not act in good faith as adm. (Of course female had good legal advice and obtained wavers from all of grandchildren to do this, and the suit would probably be thrown out)
(But it still could be filed, & of course the lawyers would get more money than the heirs, and could drag on for years.) All kinds of reasons could be given by the heirs of the female, from - signing under duress as they thought something was better than nothing etc.

III: I really think that the only way to sort this out is to:

Find out what land Old Daniel originally settled on. (I think it is the land on the south line of Robert Snodgrass 1750 Survey, called the "Land of Daniel Canady.)

Then we have to trace the transaction involving the LAND not the People. Essentially a 246 year old title search. Obviously this cannot be done on a County level, but would have to be done through Fairfax records. At this time, I can only think of one way to do it.
Send a copy of the Snodgrass survey and ask the people at the VSL if they can find the information about the land adjoining his to the south. Search for land not a Person. Does this make sense to all of you. I don't know if they would even do it or be able to do it. I can give it a try if you think it would help.???

ENOUGH you All SAY and rightly so.

Just wanted to run some things by you and sometimes writing things down helps me sort things out.
I find the legal aspects of past estates & probates so interesting & intriguing, since I found out so many & (unbelievable) things out about my grandfathers estate, probate and land when researching my mothers family.
If I were 30 years younger, would love to study Probate Law.<g>

Hope you are all finding great new information about our KENNEDYS. This will be a great year for KENNEDY research and we will have answers before 1997.]

Dear Ms. Seacord:

David Paulsell died intestate ca 1849 in Greene County, Tennessee. I have copied every record that I could find in that county regarding his estate. There is no settlement that names all of the heirs. The Chancery Court record has the most complete listing of his children that I have found.

Therefore, I am sending you a copy of the original Chancery Court record. I believe that there was something lost in the transcribing for the book by Ms. Burgner. If you will look on page 581 of the record, you will see that all of the heirs are named again and there is no period after the word Missouri but rather an "&". It states:
"Catherine, Margarette, Henry, Anne, Nathan & Newton a minor by his Guardian ad litem, who reside in the State of Missouri & Eliza and Sophia Palsell who reside in the county of Greene and the State of Tennessee being the children of Elizabeth Pollsell deceased wife of David Pallsell formerly Elizabeth Delaney." (No. 12 Timeline)

Please consider the following analysis showing that Margaret Paulsell who married Alexander Bailey in Greene County, Tennessee could be the daughter of no parents other than David Paulsell and Elizabeth Delaney Paulsell of Greene County, Tennessee.

Goal

To prove that David Paulsell and Elizabeth Delaney are the only candidates to be the parents of Margaret Paulsell who married Alexander Bailey.

Timeline

1. 24 July 1798	David Paulsell and Elizabeth Delaney married in Greene Co., TN (Greene County Tennessee Marriage Records)
2. 1805	David Paulsell, Greene County, TN (Tennessee Census, 1810-91 from Ancestry.com)
3. 1815	David Palsel, Greene County, TN (Tennessee Census, 1810-91 from Ancestry.com)
4. 1823	John D. Delaney died in Greene Co., TN. In his will he named 13 children, one of them Elizabeth Paulsell.(Greene County, TN Wills)
5. 1825	3rd Monday, November David Paulsell Complaintant vs Henry Dyke & wife, William McBride & his wife & Margaret Delaney (Chancery Court Minutes Greene County, Tennessee, November 1825 – January 1831 by Goldene Fillers Burgner; p. 7)
6. 21 May 1829	John Paulsell and Mary Bailey married in Green County, TN. (From Microfilm of Greene County, TN Marriages)
7. 8 Dec 1829	Margaret Paulsell and Alexander Bailey married in Greene Co., TN. Return by John Paulsell, local deacon of the church. (Greene County Tennessee Marriage License)
8. 1830	Federal Census for Greene County, Tennessee David Paulsell of age sixty but under seventy. Living next door is John Paulsell, of age thirty but under 40. He is too young to be the father of Margaret Paulsell, but is rather her contemporary.
9. 1840	Federal Census for Greene County Tennessee David Paulsell of age sixty but under seventy He is the only Paulsell head of household remaining in Greene County, Tennessee.

10. 1840

Federal Census for Pulaski County, Missouri
Living next door to each other:
Alexander Bailey of 30 but under 40, with two children of 5 but under 10 and wife of 30 but under 40.
Maryann Paulsel of 30 but under 40, no husband
Catherine Paulsel of 30 but under 40, living alone

Federal Census for Greene County, Missouri
Henry Paulsel is living as head of household with four other adults. I suspect that two of the males are brothers Nathan and Newton and the females are sisters Ann and Elizabeth. (See Attachment Two , No. 2)

11. 1849

1 Oct Lewis Rankin is granted letters of administration on the estate of David Paulsell. States that David Paulsell is deceased and died intestate. (Greene County Tennessee Court Clerk Minutes, Feb. 1838-July 1857)

12. 1847

12 Oct John Delaney Heir vs Heirs at law of David Delaney wherein the heirs of David Delaney, a single man who died intestate, are named. Included are:
"Catherine, Margarette, Henry, Anne, Nathan & Newton…who reside in the State of Missouri & Eliza [wife of William Beals] and Sophia Palsell who reside in the county of Greene and the State of Tennessee being the children of Elizabeth Pallsell deceased wife of David Pallsell formerly Elizabeth Delaney." (Greene County Tennessee Chancery Court Minutes)

This Chancery Court record is important in that it places these children of David Paulsell and Elizabeth Delaney in Missouri at the time. Further, looking at the census records for Missouri in 1840, we can see that at least two of them, Margaret who married Alexander Bailey and Catherine, are already in Pulaski County, Missouri along with Mary Ann Paulsell, the widow of John Paulsell. (No. 6 above) Another child, Henry, along with 4 other adult Paulsells, are already in Greene County, Missouri in 1840, and this is important because we will see that Margaret Paulsell Bailey has joined them by 1850.

13. 1850

Federal Census for Greene County, Missouri
Polk Township, p. 290
Line 13:
Margarette Bailey, age 47, b. TN – head of household
Newton A. Bailey, age 20, b. TN
Line 15:
George Brittain, age 23, b. TN – head of household
Elizabeth Brittain, age 18, b. TN

Line 31:
Henry Paulsell, age 39, b. TN – head of household
Ann Paulsell, age 45, b. TN
Elizabeth Paulsell, age 42, b. TN

Line 34:
Nathan Paulsell, age 37, b. TN

Polk Township, p. 290b
Line 5:
Newton Paulsell, age 35 – head of household

14. 1860 Federal Census for Dade County, Missouri
Polk Township
Line 15:
William Beals, age 45, b. TN
Eliza Beals, age 43, b. TN

15. 1870 Federal Census for Dade County, Missouri
Greenfield, p. 95
Line 39:
Eliza Bales, age 48, b. TN – head of household
Sophia Polsul, age 47, b. TN

This completes the migration to Missouri of all of the children of David Paulsell and Elizabeth Delaney Paulsell as named in the Chancery Court record.

Conclusion:

David Paulsell is the only Paulsell man who ever lived in Greene County, Tennessee who was old enough to be the father of Margaret Paulsell who married Alexander Bailey. The only other male Paulsells with any record in Greene County, Tennessee were all younger men and David Paulsell's sons. David Paulsell is continuously in the records of Greene County, Tennessee, from the time of his marriage to Elizabeth Delaney until his death ca 1849. Many of these records show a close association with the Delaney family. Census records for Greene County, Tennessee, from 1805 until 1840 show only one David Paulsell, and no other Paulsell man old enough to be the father of Margaret Paulsell Bailey. Of the children of David and Elizabeth named in the 1847 Chancery Court record as living in Missouri, two can be identified as migrating together by 1840 to Pulaski County, Missouri – Margaret who married Alexander Bailey and her sister Catherine. Also identified on the 1840 Pulaski County, Missouri Census, enumerated next to Alexander Bailey and family, is Maryann Paulsel, the widow of John Paulsell. (See No. 6 of Timeline) Brothers Henry, Nathan, and Newton, along with sisters Ann and Elizabeth, are located in Greene County, Missouri by 1839 in the narrative of Thomas Yeakley (No. 2 Publications) with whom they traveled from Greene County, Tennessee. By 1850, Alexander Bailey has dropped out of the picture and Margaret Bailey is also in Greene County, Missouri, along with her son Allen Newton Bailey (no doubt named for her brother Newton) living next door to her daughter Elizabeth (Betsy) Bailey who has married George W. Britain in 1849. (No. 1 Publications) Margaret Bailey and the Paulsell's, Henry, Ann, Elizabeth, and Nathan, are all living so close together that they are on the same census page. On the next census page is Newton Paulsell, the remaining brother. On the 1860 census we find that William and Eliza Beals have also moved to Missouri and are living in adjoining Dade County, Missouri. By 1870, the remaining sister, Sophia, has moved to Missouri and is living with Eliza Beals in Dade County, Missouri. That completes the migration of all of the children of David Paulsell and Elizabeth Delaney Paulsell to Missouri. Margaret Bailey is buried, along with her brothers and sisters, in Wade Chapel Cemetery which is in Greene County, Missouri. Association and geographical proximity of these brothers and sisters, along with the lack of any other candidates to be her parents, shows that Margaret Paulsell who married Alexander Bailey was the daughter of David Paulsell and Elizabeth Delaney Paulsell.

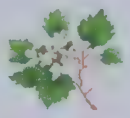
Welcome to Maries County Missouri!



Maries County was organized March 2, 1855, from Osage and Pulaski Counties and named for the Big and Little Maries Rivers. The County Seat is located at Vienna, Missouri.

Official Boundaries: "All of the territory included in the following limits, to wit: beginning at the southwest corner of Gasconade County, thence north with the dividing line of Osage and Gasconade counties, to the middle of the eastern line of township 41 of range 7; thence west through the middle of township 41, to the range line between ranges 11 and 12; thence south to the southeast corner of Miller County; thence east to the middle of range 10; thence south to the middle of township 37; thence east, on a parallel line to the western boundary line of Crawford County; thence north to the northwet corner of Crawford County; thence east to the place of beginning. Is hereby created a separate and distinct county, for all civil and military purposes, to be called the County of Maries."

The county is divided up into the following political townships: Boone, Jackson, Jefferson, Miller, Dry Creek, Spring Creek, and Johnson.

Maries is surrounded by the following counties: Miller, Osage, Gasconade, Phelps, and Pulaski.

CHAPTER FIFTY-SEVEN

MORELAND SOUTHARD JOHN HART JAMES ALLISON MOSHERS FAMILIES

George Moreland lived and died so very long ago that he is more of a legend than a reality to most of his descendants. Folk Hart, a great-grandson, now past eighty-six remembers that when he was about ten years old or less he saw George Moreland shortly before his death at the age of one hundred two; this was about the close of the Civil War. John W. Terrill, another great-grandson, now past seventy never saw him; neither did Mary Cruts, a granddaughter, now past seventy-four. Avery Moreland, a grandson, recently deceased in Stone County, believed his grandfather came here 'around one hundred twenty-five years ago,' which would place him about alongside of George Snodgrass, our earliest known permanent settler. While we do not know the exact year of his coming, we know of grandchildren being born here prior to 1830, and since all the family came here together we have proof of them being among the earlier settlers, with a strong probability he was among the very earliest. The family came here from east Tennessee and several of his children were already grown and married when they came. We do not know his wife's maiden name; it may have been either Sewell or Shinkle (or neither). A very few of his grandchildren and a considerable number of his great-grandchildren survive, but most of his descendants nor represent fifth, sixth, or even seventh generations. His only known home in this county was on the Bourbeuse, later owned (and mostly entered) by his son Andy, and now owned and lived on by Emmett Duncan. An Indian trail crossed the creek on this land, and later on one of the many forks of the Potosi road also crossed there. Its easy access probably led to its having been settled early.

Elias Moreland, son of George, married Miriam Sewell. They were the parents of twelve children living to maturity, six sons and six daughters, and had the distinction of having thirteen sons and sons-in-law in the two armies in the Civil War (one of the girls was married twice; her first husband died in the southern army, and she later married a man who had served in the Union Army). Their children were: Elias, George, Thomas, Irby, Pleasant, William M. (Bucky Bill), Eliza C., Miriam, Nancy, Jane, Samantha, and Mary Caroline Moreland. We have no record of Elias, and he probably either returned to or remained in the south after the war.

George Moreland, the oldest son, was a minister and held daily prayer services in Alton Prison during his captivity there. He never returned to Missouri after the war, settling in southern Illinois, where he spent the remainder of his life in the ministry, and died. His wife was Cynthia, sister of G. W. Shinkle, and they had several children, but only one is now recalled, Wesley, who lived at Strafford, near Springfield.

Thomas Moreland who married a daughter of James Y.

Russell Moreland, the sixth and youngest child of William W. Senior, was the father of five children by his first marriage, which was to Vina, daughter of Abel Pierce: William, Vina, wife of Thomas Roberson, Minnie, wife of James Brown, Anna, wife of O. L. Warner, and Sallie, wife of Joseph Dillon. His second marriage was to Martha, daughter of B. F. Williams, and his third to Sadie, daughter of John Massey, who survives him and lives at LaDue, Missouri. The children born of the last two marriages died in infancy.

Anderson (Andy) Moreland, son of George, was born in east Tennessee about 1813, and came to this county with his parents long before his majority. He spent most of his adult life on the farm occupied by his father, which he largely entered from the government after his father's death, and died there about 1881. His first marrriage, on August 8, 1939, was to Eleanor Noblett, the ceremony being performed by Dr. William Henderson, Justice of the Peace for Osage Township in Gasconade County, which included the residence of the bride, later known as the Ely Giesler place. The groom lived a couple miles south of there, then in Crawford County. The two children born of this marriage were Ann who died single, and Elizabeth who married Acy Giesler and died childless.

The maiden name of Andy Moreland's second wife is not at hand. They had five children: John, George, William, Malissa, and Margaret, the last of whom married John Shanks. All of them spent most, if not all, of their married lives in the west, mostly in Texas, Oklahoma, and Colorado, and all of them are now dead. Their descendants, names and number unknown, live mostly in these states.

His third marriage was to Sarah Jane Burckhardt, nee Briggs, daughter of an early day Baptist minister, by whom he was the father of four children, Nancy, Mattie, Ollie, and Andrew J. Moreland. The three girls married and are now all dead, their descendants mostly living in Texas. The son, Andrew J., born August 30, 1873, the only living child of Andy Moreland, has lived in Cleburne, Texas, for many years, where he has served as Sheriff of Johnson County. He also maintains a home in Los Angeles, California. The third Mrs. Moreland first married a man named Harris, who went to Texas many years ago and lately died there. She was the mother of two children by her second marriage; Joshua Burckhardt now living near Cleburne, Texas, and Alice, later the wife of George James.

George Moreland was the father of at least three daughters, Ann, Sarah, and Nancy. There is some tradition that there was a fourth daughter and that she married John James. But since a daughter of this union married Thomas Moreland, son of George, she was likely George's sister. It was nothing unusual for cousins to marry in those days, but not uncle and niece.

Ann Moreland married a man named Renfro, possibly before they left Tennessee. They lived here for some years but later moved to Howell County with their entire family and lived there until their deaths. No record remains of their family, and relatives here have long since lost all touch with them. Sarah Moreland married a man named McCann. We have found no record of any of their descendants in this county, and it may be that they moved to Howell County with the Renfros. This was so long ago that relatives here have no recollection of them, or of any descendants.

Nancy Moreland, whom we believe to be the only remaining daughter of George, married first, James Bailey, son of the James Bailey who was an ancestor of the family of that name in this county, and her descendants are recorded under her married name. Her second marriage was to Joseph, son of Herman Husbands, and one child of this marriage, Mary E., wife of C. C. Cruts, sur-

Thomas Kennedy, born say 1742, married Frances Lucas in St. Paul's Parish on 9 October 1763 [Nicklin, St. Paul's Parish Register, 36]. He was head of a Hampshire County household of 7 "whites" (free people) in 1782 and 7 in 1784 with no dwellings and 2 other buildings [VA:25, 71]. He sold 207 acres in Hampshire County on 11 April 1797, and he and his wife Elizabeth sold property to John Kidwell of Hampshire County on 8 September 1800 [Sage & Jones, Early Records, Hampshire County, 31]. He was taxable in the lower district of Hampshire County, Virginia, from 1782 to 1800: taxable on 1 tithe, 2 horses, and 3 cattle in 1782, 2 tithes from 1789 to 1798, and on 1 tithe in 1800 [PPTL 1782-9, frames 7, 29, 47, 66, 84, 165, 241, 254, 325, 341, 406, 424, 498, 517; 1800-14, frame 38].

Memories and Stories

John's will left his estate to his wife, Sarah, and, upon her death, to their son, Aaron Hughes. The will does not list other children. Other documents do, however, indicate a relationship to two other children, who could have been either siblings or cousins:

- Margaret HughesMargaret Hughes
- Francis HughesFrancis Hughes

Early Tennessee histories seem to link an addition person to John and Sarah Hughes. A man named John Hughes claimed that he was the brother of Francis of Greene County. This John Hughes completed a Revolutionary War pension application at the age of 80 on Sep. 5, 1832. The application states that he lived in Burke County, North Carolina, at enlistment. The application also states that he later lived in Blount Co TN, before finally settling in McMinn Co TN.

Two additional daughters attributed to John and Sarah Hughes are:

- Christiana Hughes, b. betw. 1760-1770
- Eleanor Hughes, b. betw. 1765-1770

A man named Francis Hughes and a man named Thomas Hughes fought in the same regiment from North Carolina during the Revolutionary War. A document called Pierce's Register lists both names on page 191.

The relationship of John and Sarah Hughes to Margaret, Francis, John and Thomas Hughes bears further study.

John Hughes lived in Augusta Co VA by 1754. John lived and owned land in Frederick County (later organized as part of Shenandoah County), Virginia. He sold one half acre there in the town of Woodstock [Deed Book 12, pages 432-433] in April of 1768 to Mounce Bird, who may have been the brother to the mother of John Hughes.

It is not presently known when John and his wife moved to Greene Co TN. Kay White and others has suggested that they may have lived in Burke County, North Carolina, prior to living in Tennessee. Burke Co NC is where John Hughes' son, Francis Hughes, is said to have enlisted in 3rd NC Regiment, June 1776 (per pension application of Francis Hughes).

Col. Daniel Kennedy, husband of Margaret Hughes, was the executor and witness of the will of John Hughes. His service as executor tends to refute other histories, which have argued that Margaret was the daughter of Francis Hughes, who was born earlier in this line in 1697.

> "Other Hughes of interest who may or may not be related to this family are:
>
> > (1) Andrew, James and Edward Hughes who are on the 1783 Greene Co. Tax List
> >
> > (2) Thomas & David Hughes who along with our Francis are listed in White's "The Kings Mountain Men" as early Watauga settlers & who were with Sevier at Kings Mt. (This Thomas Hughes is quite likely the Thomas found serving in the same company with our Francis.
> David Hughes was pensioned in Sullivan Co., TN in 1833 at the age of 82 (born c1751) - we need to have a look at his pension application!!"

Page 13.--4th September, 1747. John Millar (Millan) and wife Hannah to Francis Hughes, late of Lancaster County, Penna., part of 400 acres patented to Thomas Rutherford, of Frederick County, and by him sold to James Gill, late of Augusta; other part in possession of Thomas Moore Teste: Mathew Skeen, Thos. Milsap. Delivered to Abra. (?) Bird, January, 1754.

A copy of an act of Assembly of the "lower counties," probably passed shortly before this time, sets forth that "several Inhabitants of New Castle County have, by the pretence of a Circular line, runn to adjust ye Twelve miles of ye County of New Castle, seperated and withdrawn themselves from the Duties, offices and Taxes of this County, and have by virtue of running of the said line, for which there was neither warr^t^ nor law, associated to and done the Duty of ye neighbouring County." To remedy this evil the act provided for the apprehension and punishment of such offenders by distraint or otherwise.

In council, March 22, 1720, "Upon Consideration of a Petition this Day read at the Board, from sundry persons who call themselves the upper Inhabitants of the West side of the Schuylkill, in these words:

"'To the Honble William Keith, Esqr., Governour of the Province of Pensilvania and to His Honorable Council, The Petition of the upper Inhabitants on the West side of Schuylkill, humbly sheweth,

"'That Whereas the Commissioners for the County of Chester have attempted of late to make us pay taxes in the County of Chester, notwithstanding we have ever since our first Settlement paid our Taxes in the County of Philadelphia.

"'And your humble Petitioners having no Trade with Chester, and seeing it is impossible for us to have any tolerably convenient Road to Chester, by Reason of Rocks and Mountains.

"'And considering that the County of Philadelphia, if bounded by Schuylkill, will not be above seven or eight miles broad at this place by an indifferent Computation, and the County of Chester, if bounded by Schuylkill aforesaid, will be near fifty miles broad by the like computation.

"'And considering that we must carry the Product of our Labour to Market at or near Philadelphia, which is forty or fifty miles, to purchase money to pay our Taxes, and defray the several Charges we shall be incident to by public services if we be taken into Chester County, which will be a very great burthen upon us.

"'The aforesaid Considerations your humble Petitioners hope are sufficient reason for us to pray your Hon^rs^ that the Counties may be divided. And that if possible we may be (as heretofore) Inhabitants in the County of Philadelphia, tho' on the west side of Schuylkill; And your Pet^rs^ as in Duty bound will ever pray, &c.'

"Signed by Israel Robeson, Francis Hughs, Henry Bell, John Sinclair, John Rumford, and about forty psons more.

"It is ordered that the Surveyor General search his Office, and make Report to this Board of what appears from thence concerning the Division of the two Counties of Philadelphia & Chester from each other. Also, that He and James Steel report in like manner as far as they are capable, who or how many of the subscribers to the said Petition are seated on the west side of Schuylkill, and upon what Tracts of Land and how long they have been possessed of the same, upon which Report this Board may proceed further upon the Petition presented to them."

Unfortunately, the names of the petitioners are not all given, so that we cannot compare them with the assessment list of that period. In the assessment made about the close of the year 1720, the "Inhabitants upon Schoolkill above the french Creek" were these:

who call themselves the upper Inhabitants of the West side of the Schuylkill, in these words:

"'To the Honble William Keith, Esqr., Governour of the Province of Pensilvania and to His Honorable Council, The Petition of the upper Inhabitants on the West side of Schuylkill, humbly sheweth, Francis (G2) Hughes (son of Charles (G1) Hughes and Rebecca) was born Abt. 1697 in near Philadelphia, Lancaster, PA, and died 1777 in prob Augusta Co., VA. He married Christina on Bet. 1720 - 1734 in prob Philadelphia, PA.

Includes NotesNotes for Francis (G2) Hughes:
Francis is named in the will of his father, Charles Hughes, in 1711. He is listed with brother John and sisters Rebeckah (Rebecca) and Ann.
John is apparently the older brother as he is given the 200 acres of land owned by Charles.

In 1720, Francis is a signatory to a petition requesting that the area on the south side of the Schuylkill river - in the area of Robeson township - be brought into the jurisdiction of Philadelphia County instead of Chester County. He must have been close to 21 years old by 1720. I have therefore estimated a birth date of 1697-1700. Israel Robeson was also a signer of the petition.

Francis is listed on the tax rolls of Chester County, PA as resident in Coventry township in 1725 and 1726.

In the Quarter Sessions minutes for August 5, 1729 in Lancaster County, PA, Francis is appointed by the court as "Constable of Robinson (Robeson) township".

Francis is mentioned in the Cocalico township Quarter Sessions docket (1729-1742).
In the Quarter Sessions minutes for August 5, 1735 in Lancaster County, PA, Francis is mentioned in a petition as follows: "Several Inhabitants of the Township of Robinson praying a Road may be laid out Beginning at the most Convenient place near the Sinking Spring on Tolpehoken Road thence by Widdow Jones's, James Lewis's the Saw Mill and ffrancis Hugh's plantation into the Cocalico Road. Thence to the County line in order to Joyn a Road Leading by Millers Mill to Philadelphia".

In the same minutes for court held May 4, 1735: "ffrancis Hughs to appear and prosecute Jno Rogers for assault and battery". The minutes further state "John Rogers: Stealing one Bay Gelding to the Vallue of Six pounds belonging to ffrancis Hughs. Found guilty. Ordered to make restitution, fined six pounds plus costs & Moreover Receive on his bare back twenty one Lashes".

There are other mentions in these court minutes of Francis as a member of the jury, etc.

In the May, 1735 minutes of Cocalico township there is a petition for "a Road from Jacob Smiley's near Kits Miller's Mill to Francis Hughes' on Schuylkill; thence to Campbell's Ford".

Marjorie Shields (a Hughes family researcher) made notes which indicated a reference to Francis: "1735 - Thomas Hughes dec'd Lancaster Co. PA wife Elizabeth, children Elisha, Thomas, Deborah, and David. Mentioned in deed of Francis in Lancaster Co. PA. His wife married Edward Mitchell and moved to Cecil County Maryland." I do not have this deed and know of no other connection between Francis and Thomas. Since Thomas is not listed in Charles' will, I presume he is not a brother of Francis. It is possible that he is a brother to Charles who came over from Wales.

From the records I have, it appears to me that Marjorie is referring to a mention of a Thomas Hughes who witnessed a deed in Lancaster County in 1751. The exact record from "Lancaster County, Pennsylvania Deed Abstracts - Deed Books 'A' through 'M'" compiled by R. Thomas Mayhill is as follows: "(deed book) C99 William Bird (ironmaster) and w Bridget (Britchet) of Robeson tp enf. to Samuel Sealy (ironmaster) of Robeson tp 1,200 pounds (currency). 194 acres Robeson tp: Francis Hughes, Victor Naily, w. side Hay Creek. Also, 80 acres Robeson tp: William Bird; Also, 111 acres Robeson tp: Israel Robeson; Also, 75 acres Robeson tp: Enock Flowers; Also 226 acres Robeson tp: on Six Pence Creek; Also 204 acres

Robeson tp: No. adjacent owners shown; Also Robeson tp: William Bird Part of 1,341 acres patented 16 March 1749 to William Bird (part of 243 acres)..... (deed book) C103 (same descriptions as above plus this note:) 29 May 1751 Joseph David, Thomas Hughes J14 4 Jul '51.

I believe the Thomas Hughes above is only coincidentally mentioned here. This does not appear to have any particular significance regarding family relationships. There is, however, a good possibility that a Thomas Hughes is somehow related to our family. There are numerous mentions of a Thomas in close proximity to our family.

1736 Francis Hughes patent in Lancaster Co. PA 194 acres on Haycreek (at the Schuylkill river). Francis is listed as "Francis Hughes late of Victor Nailey". Victor Nailey was a settlement not far from present Birdsboro.

A Francis Hughes is listed on the tax rolls of Chester County, PA as a resident in West Caln township in 1747. This may have been a place of temporary residence for Francis after he sold his land to William Bird and before moving to Virginia.

Francis' property on the Schuylkill was located in Lancaster County until 1752 when that part of the county became Berks County.

1746 - Francis Hughes "yeoman" and his wife Christian sell their "two hundred acres and the allowance" to William Bird for the sum of 280 pounds "current money of Pennsylvania". The sale is recorded in Berks County, PA Deed Book 7, page 486. (Note: Yeoman: a freeholder of a class below the gentry who worked his own land, a small land owner, an attendent or manservant in a royal or noble household, an assistant or subordinate (Webster's). Most likely a small land owner in the deed above.

Francis (73) bought prop in Augusta Co. VA in 1747. Deed Book No. 2 p. 13 - "4th September, 1747. John Millar (Millan) and wife Hannah of Augusta County for the sum of 60 pounds sold to Francis Hughes, late of Lancaster County of the province of Pennsylvania 200 acres in Augusta County being a part of 400 acres patented to Thomas Rutherford, of Frederick County, and by him sold to James Gill, late of Augusta; other part in possession of Thomas Moore. Teste: Mathew Skeen, Thos. Milsap. Delivered to Abra. (?) Bird, January, 1754."

I DON'T BELIEVE I HAVE SEEN ANY RECORD WHICH MENTIONS CHRISTINA AFTER THE SALE OF THE PROPERTY IN PENNSYLVANIA TO BIRD. THIS COULD INDICATE THAT: 1. SHE DIED BEFORE FRANCIS LEFT FOR VIRGINIA. 2. THE FRANCIS WHO BUYS LAND IN VIRGINIA IS NOT THE SAME FRANCIS WHO WAS MARRIED TO CHRISTINA 3. SHE IS SIMPLY NOT MENTIONED IN THE RECORDS (WAS IT USUAL TO MENTION THE WIFE'S NAME IN PURCHASE OF LAND?)

Note that the reference above includes the words "late of Lancaster County of the province of Pennsylvania". This, when combined with the timing of the PA sale and the VA purchase, is a strong indication that the Francis who buys property in Augusta Co. VA is the same as the son of Charles of PA.

Note that the delivery of the deed to Abraham Bird (who was a son of Andrew Bird) probably indicates a close family relationship. (I speculate that Christina may have been a sister or aunt to Abraham Bird). Abraham later (in 1779) proved the will of Francis. This is first indication of a Francis in Augusta Co. VA. He probably came from Penn to Va in late 1746 or early 1747.

Chalkley's Vol I p. 43: 9/21/1750 Francis Hughes - one old wolf head. p. 46 Robt. McClenachan qualified sheriff 8/27/1751. Francis Hughes complains Robt. McClenachan has taken him up as a runaway. I wonder if this could be the Francis "Jr." who is listed in the militia roster in 1767? If Francis Jr. is the son of Francis (G2), he would probably have been born about 1736 or so. This would make him about 15 years old in 1751. This is a strange situation. Robert McClenachan and Francis had both lived in the area for three or four years and should have known each other well enough to avoid this mistake. Peter Wilson suggests that this error may have been caused by his surname. Notice had been posted by Thomas Dansie of King William County for a runaway servant named William Hughes. (Chalkley I, p 46,47).

"Genealogies of Va. Families" p. 138 - Francis Hughes buys 225 a. in Augusta Co. on NR of Shenando. 17 Mar 1756. (also mentioned on p. 354 of Va. Historical Mag. vol 34. The date on this record appears to be in error. This 225 acres was surveyed for Francis Hughes March 27, 1750. It is adjacent to the original 200 acres he bought in 1747.

Henning's Statutes at Large Vol 7 p. 204 - 13 shillings paid to Aaron Hughes and Charles Hughes as wages in militia of Albemarle Co. VA
9/1758. "back wages due from Geo II 'an act for the defence of the frontiers of this colony, and for other purposes therein mentioned". This would give this Aaron a birthdate before 1740 (if he was at least 18 yrs old in 1758). Note the existance of a Charles Hughes, possibly a grandson of Charles and Rebecca (?). During the upheaval caused by the frequent indian attacks in the 1750's many settlers temporarily left the Shenandoah valley and moved to safer ground to the east. It is possible that this Aaron and Charles were part of our family and had enlisted in Albemarle county after moving there for safety. It is also possible that they were members of the Hughes families in Albemarle who may or may not be related to our family.

Some notes on the French and Indian War:

From 1754 to 1758, heavy Indian attacks occurred in the Shenandoah Valley in Virginia and along the Catawaba River in NC. From October, 1754 to the end of 1756, these assaults resulted in the deaths of at least 68 persons in the Shenandoah Valley. In 1757 and 1758, at least 49 settlers were killed, five wounded, and 86 taken prisoner. During the period around 1756 to 1759, many people fled Rowan County, NC to safety east of the Yadkin River. Peace finally came about 1761.

Francis was listed as overseer of roads in Augusta Co. VA in 1751. In 1752 Francis signs a petition about rerouting a road by his place in Augusta Co. VA.

Francis is shown still owning prop bought from Millar in 1768 when his land was processioned. Valentine Sevier is shown as a neighbor.
In 1767 Francis Hughs is named in the processioning of property in Augusta Co.

Militia records indicate that Aaron Hughes, John Hughes, and a Francis Hughes, Jr. are listed as delinquents under Captain Andrew Bird's company for missing a muster on April 16, 1767. The term "Jr." for Francis Hughes, Jr. does not necessarily indicate that he is a son of Francis (G2). It is not likely, however, that he is a grandson of Francis (G2). Aaron would only be about 32 years old at this time and John would only be about 35. He could be a son of John (G2) the brother of Francis (G2), but I have no information proving conclusively that John (G2) was even present in Virginia. I suspect that "Jr." is the son of Francis (G2) and was born after Aaron and John. This would give him a birthdate of about 1738 to 1740 and making his age at this time to be in his late twenties. If this is the case, it would seem that it is impossible for the Francis who served at King's Mountain to be the son of Francis (G2). Francis of King's Mountain stated in his pension application that he was born in 1759. He would have only been 8 years old at the time of the militia muster mentioned above. I believe Francis of King's Mountain was of the next generation and was probably the son of Aaron (G3) or John (G3).

In 1777 Francis died in Augusta Co. VA with Aaron as administrator of his estate. David Grey speculated that there may also have been a son Moses who named his sons Francis, Aaron, and Thomas. The court records of Bortetourt or Augusta Co. VA indicate that 26 July 1779 "Will of Francis Hughes proved and Aaron Hughes qualifies executor." This seems to put Aaron in VA at that time. Note that the Aaron of Botetourt Co sold his land in 1783 to Brewer Reeves and left for Tennessee.

Francis Hughes is listed in 1766 under "Supernumeraries" in the VA court records. There is also an Aaron Hughs listed as a supernumerary" in the same record in 1766. Aaron (G3) would have been 31 years old at this time. Could he be supernumerary because of the military service listed above? I need to ask someone who knows about this.

We need to check for his will in Augusta Co. Va in 1777 to see if he names children. (I checked for Va wills at Clayton Library in Houston and could not find any will for him on microfilm there). Harry Long of New Market, VA told me he had checked the library in Richmond without success. I intend to check further. John Henton was the bondsman (10,000 pounds) for the will of Francis. Henton was the son of George Henton who purchased land in 1717 very near the land owned by Francis and Christina. They apparently attended the same church in Douglassville (Morlatton) as Francis and Christina. John Henton was probably a friend of Francis in Pennsylvania who later moved to Virginia as did Francis. John Henton was also a neighbor to John Hughes (son of Francis) in VA.

David Grey (a genealogist and apparently related to the Hughes family) stated in his notes that historians speculate that this Francis had children Francis, John, David, and Thomas - and that they were all at the battle of King's Mountain. I am not so sure about this. I believe Francis and Christina had children Aaron (b1735), Francis, Jr. (bc1740), and John (bc1732) plus some others (Moses, etc.).

Note that at least two of Francis' children are born between 1730 and 1740 in PA.

In will of Thomas Hughes (733) who died in 1765 "in a weak and declining condition", sons listed are Thomas, John, FRANCIS, Anthony, Matthew, William, and Thomas the younger. Is it possible this could be a son of Francis (73)???? He died in Orange Co. VA. Augusta Co. was formed from Orange Co. in 1738-1745.

Also note that the children of Charles Hughes (575) - Francis and John - could be the right age to be in Augusta Co. in 1740/1750.

After reviewing all of the facts, I have not found any mention of the Francis who moves to VA conclusively tied to a wife Christina. There is simply no mention of a wife's name in Virginia. We need to find the records of the sale of the 200 acres and the 225 acres of land on the south fork of the Shenandoah which Francis bought in 1747 and 1750. If his wife is still alive when the land is sold, her name would appear on the sale documents.

It is speculated that Christina was the daughter of Swan Rambo or Andrew Bird. Since the first record of a child is the baptism of Aaron in 1734, she could have married Francis as late as 1733. He would have been about 36 years old by then.

Birth: 1665
Denbigh, Wales
Death: 1711
Philadelphia County
Pennsylvania, USA

Charles' parents are unknown at this time, but they may be Valentine & Fortune (Gwilym) Hughes. He was born abt 1665 in Denbighshire, Wales and came to America aboard the ship "Vine", sailing from Dolyserre (aka Dolserau) Wales and arriving in Philadelphia PA on 17 Jul 1684. To pay for his transport, Charles was a servant for three years to David David and his sister Katherine, also from Denbighshire.

Charles made his living as a cooper and carpenter. By the time he married Electa Rebecca Judson in 1695 in Radnor Twp, Delaware Co PA, he was an established farmer. Rebecca was also from Wales.

Children with Rebecca:
1) Francis Alexander Hughes Sr (1697-1779), m: Christina Jonasson.
2) Rebecca Hughes (b: 1699)
3) Anne Hughes (b: 1701)
4) John Hughes (b. abt 1704)

Early Land Acquisition in Augusta County, VA

Acquisition of Land from Chalkley's:

- Page 13.--4th September, 1747. John Millar (Millan) and wife Hannah to Francis Hughes, late of Lancaster County, Penna., part of 400 acres patented to Thomas Rutherford, of Frederick County, and by him sold to James Gill, late of Augusta; other part in possession of Thomas Moore Teste: Mathew Skeen, Thos. Milsap. Delivered to Abra. (?) Bird, January, 1754. (Note: based upon other records listed below, this land is located near Brock's Creek, a tributary of the South River a branch of the Shenandoah River).

Estate Records of Francis Hughes

- 26 July 1779 - Will of Francis Hughes proved and Aaron Hughes qualifies executor.

Records of Francis Hughes in Augusta County, VA

From Chalkley's Augusta County Records:

- Vol. 1 - 1750 - Linvell's Creek petitioners for a road leading from Brock's Creek to ye Market Road by Francis Hughes's and from thence to Fredericksburg: Jonathan Douglas, James Claypoole, Rees Thomas, William Smith, William Claypoole. John Miller, Robert Williams.

- Vol. 1 - MAY 20, 1752. - (247) Petition of inhabitants of Linvil's Creek. These persons to clear a road from Brock's Creek to Francis Hughes's, thence to the main road leading to Fredericksburg: Jonathan Duglass, Wm. Smith, John Miller, James Claypole, Wm. Claypole, Ro. Williams, Rees Thomas.
- Vol. 2 - 1779--July 26th, Abraham Smith qualifies Sheriff. Will of Francis Hughes proved and Aaron Hughes qualifies executor. Francis McBride bound to Grand Jury for speaking treasonable words. Will of George Zimmerman, alias Carpenter, proved; Ann, George, and Adam Zimmerman qualify executors.

Information on Francis Hughes

From "Papers read before the Lancaster County Historical Society, Volume 25", by Lancaster County Historical Society:

"Francis Hughes, late of Lancaster County, Pa.," bought from John Miller 200 acres of land on North River, in Augusta County, Va., Sept. 4, 1747. Deed Book 2, p. 11.

Notes from Familytreemaker site of D. Michael Hughes of Ingram, Texas: (added with Mr. Hughes permission)

Francis is named in the will of his father, Charles Hughes, in 1711. He is listed with brother John and sisters Rebeckah (Rebecca) and Ann. John is apparently the older brother as he is given the 200 acres of land owned by Charles.

In 1720, Francis is a signatory to a petition requesting that the area on the south side of the Schuylkill river - in the area of Robeson township - be brought into the jurisdiction of Philadelphia County instead of Chester County. He must have been close to 21 years old by 1720. I have therefore estimated a birth date of 1697-1700. Israel Robeson was also a signer of the petition.

Francis is listed on the tax rolls of Chester County, PA as resident in Coventry township in 1725 and 1726.

In the Quarter Sessions minutes for August 5, 1729 in Lancaster County, PA, Francis is appointed by the court as "Constable of Robinson (Robeson) township".

Francis is mentioned in the Cocalico township Quarter Sessions docket (1729-1742). In the Quarter Sessions minutes for August 5, 1735 in Lancaster County, PA, Francis is mentioned in a petition as follows: "Several Inhabitants of the Township of Robinson praying a Road may be laid out Beginning at the most Convenient place near the Sinking Spring on Tolpehoken Road thence by Widdow Jones's, James Lewis's the Saw Mill and ffrancis Hugh's plantation into the Cocalico Road. Thence to the County line in order to Joyn a Road Leading by Millers Mill to Philadelphia".

In the same minutes for court held May 4, 1735: "ffrancis Hughs to appear and prosecute Jno Rogers for assault and battery". The minutes further state "John Rogers: Stealing one Bay Gelding to the Vallue of Six pounds belonging to ffrancis Hughs. Found guilty. Ordered to make restitution, fined six pounds plus costs & Moreover Receive on his bare back twenty one Lashes".

There are other mentions in these court minutes of Francis as a member of the jury, etc.

In the May, 1735 minutes of Cocalico township there is a petition for "a Road from Jacob Smiley's near Kits Miller's Mill to Francis Hughes' on Schuylkill; thence to Campbell's Ford".

Marjorie Shields (a Hughes family researcher) made notes which indicated a reference to Francis: "1735 - Thomas Hughes dec'd Lancaster Co. PA wife Elizabeth, children Elisha, Thomas, Deborah, and David. Mentioned in deed of Francis in Lancaster Co. PA. His wife married Edward Mitchell and moved to Cecil County Maryland." I do not have this deed and know of no other connection between Francis and Thomas. Since Thomas is not listed in Charles' will, I presume he is not a brother of Francis. It is possible that he is a brother to Charles who came over from Wales.

From the records I have, it appears to me that Marjorie is referring to a mention of a Thomas Hughes who witnessed a deed in Lancaster County in 1751. The exact record from "Lancaster County, Pennsylvania Deed Abstracts - Deed Books 'A' through 'M'" compiled by R. Thomas Mayhill is as follows: "(deed book) C99 William Bird (ironmaster) and w Bridget (Britchet) of Robeson tp enf. to Samuel Sealy (ironmaster) of Robeson tp 1,200 pounds (currency). 194 acres Robeson tp: Francis Hughes, Victor Naily, w. side Hay Creek. Also, 80 acres Robeson tp: William Bird; Also, 111 acres Robeson tp: Israel Robeson; Also, 75 acres Robeson tp: Enock Flowers; Also 226 acres Robeson tp: on Six Pence Creek; Also 204 acres Robeson tp: No. adjacent owners shown; Also Robeson tp: William Bird Part of 1,341 acres patented 16 March 1749 to William Bird (part of 243 acres)..... (deed book) C103 (same descriptions as above plus this note:) 29 May 1751 Joseph David, Thomas Hughes J14 4 Jul '51.

I believe the Thomas Hughes above is only coincidentally mentioned here. This does not appear to have any particular significance regarding family relationships. There is, however, a good possibility that a Thomas Hughes is somehow related to our family. There are numerous mentions of a Thomas in close proximity to our family.

1736 Francis Hughes patent in Lancaster Co. PA 194 acres on Haycreek (at the Schuylkill river). Francis is listed as "Francis Hughes late of Victor Nailey". Victor Nailey was a settlement not far from present Birdsboro.

A Francis Hughes is listed on the tax rolls of Chester County, PA as a resident in West Caln township in 1747. This may have been a place of temporary residence for Francis after he sold his land to William Bird and before moving to Virginia.

Francis' property on the Schuylkill was located in Lancaster County until 1752 when that part of the county became Berks County.

1746 - Francis Hughes "yeoman" and his wife Christian sell their "two hundred acres and the allowance" to William Bird for the sum of 280 pounds "current money of Pennsylvania". The sale is recorded in Berks County, PA Deed Book 7, page 486. (Note: Yeoman: a freeholder of a class below the gentry who worked his own land, a small land owner, an attendent or manservant in a royal or noble household, an assistant or subordinate (Webster's). Most likely a small land owner in the deed above.

Francis (73) bought prop in Augusta Co. VA in 1747. Deed Book No. 2 p. 13 - "4th September, 1747. John Millar (Millan) and wife Hannah of Augusta County for the sum of 60 pounds sold to Francis Hughes, late of Lancaster County of the province of Pennsylvania 200 acres in Augusta County being a part of 400 acres patented to Thomas Rutherford, of Frederick County, and by him sold to James Gill, late of Augusta; other part in possession of Thomas Moore. Teste: Mathew Skeen, Thos. Milsap. Delivered to Abra. (?) Bird, January, 1754."

I DON'T BELIEVE I HAVE SEEN ANY RECORD WHICH MENTIONS CHRISTINA AFTER THE SALE OF THE PROPERTY IN PENNSYLVANIA TO BIRD. THIS COULD INDICATE THAT: 1. SHE DIED BEFORE FRANCIS LEFT FOR VIRGINIA. 2. THE FRANCIS WHO BUYS LAND IN VIRGINIA IS NOT THE SAME FRANCIS WHO WAS MARRIED TO CHRISTINA 3. SHE IS SIMPLY NOT MENTIONED IN THE RECORDS (WAS IT USUAL TO MENTION THE WIFE'S NAME IN PURCHASE OF LAND?)

Note that the reference above includes the words "late of Lancaster County of the province of Pennsylvania". This, when combined with the timing of the PA sale and the VA purchase, is a strong indication that the Francis who buys property in Augusta Co. VA is the same as the son of Charles of PA.

Note that the delivery of the deed to Abraham Bird (who was a son of Andrew Bird) probably indicates a close family relationship. (I speculate that Christina may have been a sister or aunt to Abraham Bird). Abraham later (in 1779) proved the will of Francis. This is first indication of a Francis in Augusta Co. VA. He probably came from Penn to Va in late 1746 or early 1747.

Chalkley's Vol I p. 43: 9/21/1750 Francis Hughes - one old wolf head. p. 46 Robt. McClenachan qualified sheriff 8/27/1751. Francis Hughes complains Robt. McClenachan has taken him up as a runaway. I wonder if this could be the Francis "Jr." who is listed in the militia roster in 1767? If Francis Jr. is the son of Francis (G2), he would probably have been born about 1736 or so. This would make him about 15 years old in 1751. This is a strange situation. Robert McClenachan and Francis had both lived in the area for three or four years and should have known each other well enough to avoid this mistake. Peter Wilson suggests that this error may have been caused by his surname. Notice had been posted by Thomas Dansie of King William County for a runaway servant named William Hughes. (Chalkley I, p 46,47).

"Genealogies of Va. Families" p. 138 - Francis Hughes buys 225 a. in Augusta Co. on NR of Shenando. 17 Mar 1756. (also mentioned on p. 354 of Va. Historical Mag. vol 34. The date on this record appears to be in error. This 225 acres was surveyed for Francis Hughes March 27, 1750. It is adjacent to the original 200 acres he bought in 1747.

Henning's Statutes at Large Vol 7 p. 204 - 13 shillings paid to Aaron Hughes and Charles Hughes as wages in militia of Albemarle Co. VA 9/1758. "back wages due from Geo II 'an act for the defence of the frontiers of this colony, and for other purposes therein mentioned". This would give this Aaron a birthdate before 1740 (if he was at least 18 yrs old in 1758). Note the existance of a Charles Hughes, possibly a grandson of Charles and Rebecca (?). During the upheaval caused by the frequent indian attacks in the 1750's many settlers temporarily left the Shenandoah valley and moved to safer ground to the east. It is possible that this Aaron and Charles were part of our family and had enlisted in Albemarle county after moving there for safety. It is also possible that they were members of the Hughes families in Albemarle who may or may not be related to our family.

Some notes on the French and Indian War:

From 1754 to 1758, heavy Indian attacks occurred in the Shenandoah Valley in Virginia and along the Catawaba River in NC. From October, 1754 to the end of 1756, these assaults resulted in the deaths of at least 68 persons in the Shenandoah Valley. In 1757 and 1758, at least 49 settlers were killed, five wounded, and 86 taken prisoner. During the period around 1756 to 1759, many people fled Rowan County, NC to safety east of the Yadkin River. Peace finally came about 1761.

Francis was listed as overseer of roads in Augusta Co. VA in 1751. In 1752 Francis signs a petition about rerouting a road by his place in Augusta Co. VA.

Francis is shown still owning prop bought from Millar in 1768 when his land was processioned. Valentine Sevier is shown as a neighbor. In 1767 Francis Hughs is named in the processioning of property in Augusta Co.

Militia records indicate that Aaron Hughes, John Hughes, and a Francis Hughes, Jr. are listed as delinquents under Captain Andrew Bird's company for missing a muster on April 16, 1767. The term "Jr." for Francis Hughes, Jr. does not necessarily indicate that he is a son of Francis (G2). It is not likely, however, that he is a grandson of Francis (G2). Aaron would only be about 32 years old at this time and John would only be about 35. He could be a son of John (G2) the brother of Francis (G2), but I have no information proving conclusively that John (G2) was even present in Virginia. I suspect that "Jr." is the son of Francis (G2) and was born after Aaron and John. This would give him a birthdate of about 1738 to 1740 and making his age at this time to be in his late twenties. If this is the case, it would seem that it is impossible for the Francis who served at King's Mountain to be the son of Francis (G2). Francis of King's Mountain stated in his pension application that he was born in 1759. He would have only been 8 years old at the time of the militia muster mentioned above. I believe Francis of King's Mountain was of the next generation and was probably the son of Aaron (G3) or John (G3).

In 1777 Francis died in Augusta Co. VA with Aaron as administrator of his estate. David Grey speculated that there may also have been a son Moses who named his sons Francis, Aaron, and Thomas. The court records of Bortetourt or Augusta Co. VA indicate that 26 July 1779 "Will of Francis Hughes proved and Aaron Hughes qualifies executor." This seems to put Aaron in VA at that time. Note that the Aaron of Botetourt Co sold his land in 1783 to Brewer Reeves and left for Tennessee.

Francis Hughes is listed in 1766 under "Supernumeraries" in the VA court records. There is also an Aaron Hughs listed as a supernumerary" in the same record in 1766. Aaron (G3) would have been 31 years old at this time. Could he be supernumerary because of the military service listed above? I need to ask someone who knows about this.

We need to check for his will in Augusta Co. Va in 1777 to see if he names children. (I checked for Va wills at Clayton Library in Houston and could not find any will for him on microfilm there). Harry Long of New Market, VA told me he had checked the library in Richmond without success. I intend to check further. John Henton was the bondsman (10,000 pounds) for the will of Francis. Henton was the son of George Henton who purchased land in 1717 very near the land owned by Francis and Christina. They apparently attended the same church in Douglassville (Morlatton) as Francis and Christina. John Henton was probably a friend of Francis in Pennsylvania who later moved to Virginia as did Francis. John Henton was also a neighbor to John Hughes (son of Francis) in VA.

David Grey (a genealogist and apparently related to the Hughes family) stated in his notes that historians speculate that this Francis had children Francis, John, David, and Thomas - and that they were all at the battle of King's Mountain. I am not so sure about this. I believe Francis and Christina had children Aaron (b1735), Francis, Jr. (bc1740), and John (bc1732) plus some others (Moses, etc.).

Note that at least two of Francis' children are born between 1730 and 1740 in PA.

In will of Thomas Hughes (733) who died in 1765 "in a weak and declining condition", sons listed are Thomas, John, FRANCIS, Anthony, Matthew, William, and Thomas the younger. Is it possible this could be a son of Francis (73)???? He died in Orange Co. VA. Augusta Co. was formed from Orange Co. in 1738-1745.

Also note that the children of Charles Hughes (575) - Francis and John - could be the right age to be in Augusta Co. in 1740/1750.

After reviewing all of the facts, I have not found any mention of the Francis who moves to VA conclusively tied to a wife Christina. There is simply no mention of a wife's name in Virginia. We need to find the records of the sale of the 200 acres and the 225 acres of land on the south fork of the Shenandoah which Francis bought in 1747 and 1750. If his wife is still alive when the land is sold, her name would appear on the sale documents.

Information on John Hughes

Notes from Familytreemaker site of D. Michael Hughes: (added with permission, includes some speculation about certain possible relationships in the Hughes Family)

This seems to be the son of Francis (G2). The first mention of him is in the ledgers of the Coventry Forge where his father Francis is credited for "work done by your son John at the damm" in 1743. I have indicated his date of birth as "before 1732", but believe it was no later than 1730 as he was surely at least 13 years old when working "at the damm" of the forge in 1743. After the sale of his land in Pennsylvania, Francis moved to the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia.

In the records of Frederick County, VA (which is just north of the place where Francis purchased his land on the north fork of the Shenandoah in 1747), a John Hughes binds himself in consideration of 17 Pounds to Andrew Campbell to serve him during the space of 17 months. This agreement was in March of 1747, a few months before Francis concluded his purchase of land. I suspect John was old enough to work (probably about 16 by then) and took this job to support himself when his parents moved to Virginia. His brother Aaron was only 12 years old at this time.

The same records show that Andrew Campbell concluded the purchase of a plantation of four hundred acres "adjoining the county line" one day after John signed the agreement to work for him. I would think John's help was needed by Campbell to work the plantation. We need to determine the location of this property and determine what county line was referred to.

In 1752 (Records of Frederick County) a John (J) Hughes signs as a witness to a lease of 252 acres by George Johnston, Gentleman, of the County of Frederick, to George Washington of County of King George. The most interesting thing about this transcript is that it shows John's signature as "John (J) Hughes". The transcript of John's will indicated the same (J) as part of the signature. As explained below, this occured because his signature in the will was made with the left side of the cursive capital letter 'H' slightly separated from the rest of the letter. It would be interesting to examine the original signature on this lease to compare it with the signature on the Green County will. This might prove whether this is our John Hughes.

From "Apprentices of Virginia 1623-1800" by Harold B. Gill, Jr. (p. 132): A Joseph James of Augusta Co. VA is apprenticed to a John Hughes. The beginning date for the apprenticeship was August 1, 1753. Joseph's father was shown as William James, deceased. The ending date of the apprenticeship was unspecified. This information came originally from the Augusta Parish Vestry Book 1746-1780 p. 122.

Again in the records of Frederick County (Shenandoah County Deeds by Amelia Gilreath Page 267 25 May, 1780), a 'lease and release' is done between John Hughes to Mounts (Mounce) Bird for 1/2 acre of land designated as lot #75 in the town of Woodstock. John's mother is speculated to be the daughter of Andrew Bird. She would therefore be a sister to Mounce Bird. Here John is selling a town lot to a person who is speculated to be his uncle. This activity above would seem to indicate that John may have been a resident of Frederick County until 1768. This area of Frederick County became Shenandoah County in 1772.

(From "Settlers by the Long Grey Trail"): "On the 26 July 1753, Thomas Moore and Mary his wife deeded 200 acres of land on Smiths Creek to Samuel Newman. This land had originally been obtained from Fairfax by Newman who in turn sold it to Moore. "Teste: Wm. Carrel and John Hughes" (See, Augusta County Deed Book No. 5, p. 349, Chalkley, Vol. III, p. 315) This was the year that the county line between Augusta and Frederick was finally adjusted, but at that the land was evidently outside of Fairfax's territory. Note that 4 Sept 1747 Thomas Moore was listed as in possession of other part of 400 acres which was purchased by Francis H (73) from John Millar. Here we have a John Hughes witnessing a sale in 1753 from a man who owned land next door to Francis (73). This also means this John must have been born prior to 1732, which fits perfectly with our estimated birth date of John, son of Francis (G2). He could, of course, be the brother of Francis (G2) whose location in the 1750's I have not determined.

The term "processioning" means to go out and remark property lines. From "Settlers by the Long Grey Trail" p. 163, is recorded: 'On the 8th of March (1748) Daniel Harrison and Morgan Bryan (the Bryan of Bryan's settlement in NC?), reported .....processioned for Thomas Moore, present Francis Hughs; processioned for John Miller, present Thomas Hughes, Thomas Moore; processioned for Thomas Moore, present Francis Hughes;...,etc. (This is from the Augusta Parish Vestry Book, pp 4, 19, and 23; Chalkley, Vol II, p. 435). Note the mention of Morgan Bryan. This may be the same Morgan Bryan who appears at the Yadkin River with Edward Hughes. Note: I need to know more about Thomas Hughes mentioned above. Could he be a son of Francis? This doesn't seem possible as Francis seems to be having children in the 1730's. On the other hand, he can't be a brother of Francis because he is not mentioned in the will of Charles. He might be the nephew of Francis, a son of John (G2). Jeanne Bowman had him shown as a son of Francis (G2).

I have shown this John (G3) Hughes to be the father of Francis of King's Mountain only because I cannot work out any other good possibility. I have no proof that John is the father of Francis. There is no record indicating that the Francis who moved from Pennsylvania to Virginia had a son named Francis.

In "Carolina Cradle" there is a statement that "In December, 1746, Edward Hughes purchased a tract of land in the valley of Virginia (for 25 pounds Pennsylvania money) on Wallings Creek, a branch of the North Shenandoah (witnesses to this transaction were Samuel Bryan, Morgan Bryan, Jr., and John Ellis). He was still there in the fall of 1747 but removed to the Yadkin (probably with the Bryans) in 1748."

From "Apprentices of Virginia 1623-1800" by Harold B. Gill, Jr. page 132: A James Joseph is apprenticed in Augusta County, VA to John Hughes with a beginning date of 08/01/1753. James father was Williams James who was deceased. James was apprenticed to John to learn a trade as a cooper. The source for this information was the Augusta Parish Vestry Book (1746-1780) page 122. This note is particularly interesting in that it specifies a trade. Remember that Charles (G1) was a cooper and willed his coopers tools to his son John (G2). This may be an indication that John (G2) was living in Augusta County in 1753. This seems likely since John (G3) would be only about 21 years old in 1753 and would probably not be taking in an apprentice. It could also mean that both John (G2) and Francis (G2) continued their father's vocation and Francis (G2) passed on his knowledge to his son John (G3).

In 1754 John Hughes received 150 acres of land on Timber Ridge above Timberville (see survey). John (G3), son of Francis (G2), would have been about 24 years old at this time. I have visited this property. It is located high on the ridge and is currently planted in part with apple trees. It is not particularly good farm land. It is almost directly across the river from Francis' land on the north fork of the Shenandoah. This land is about 12 miles southwest of Woodstock. I do not know whether or not John ever lived on this property.

Based on the 1830 census of Overton Co. TN, John and Sarah's son Aaron was born between 1760 and 1770. This would have been about the same time as the purchase of the property at Linville's Creek. It is possible that John and Sarah could have been born as late as 1748 or so and still have a child and property at this time. If they married late, they could have been 30 years old or so and have been born about 1740. In either case, this would raise questions about whether this is the John who acquired 150 acres on Timber Ridge in 1754. If he acquires this property in 1754 at minimum age of 20, he would have been born before 1734 and would have been 34 years old when he buys the property at Linville Creek.

I need to determine where John was residing between 1754 and 1768. Remember that this is the time of severe indian attacks in the Shenandoah valley and the time when a John Hughes was listed as a "long hunter" with Daniel Boone and others. The long hunters hunted and explored Kentucky and Tennessee from 1760 to 1775. (See 'Early Adventurers on the Western Waters' by Kegley - page 83) In Deed Book 12, pages 432 and 433, it is recorded that John Hughes sold 1/2 acre of land in the town of Woodstock, VA. to Mounts Bird in April of 1768. George Ruddell, Richard Campbell, and Burr Harrison were witnesses.

I believe this answers the mystery about the parents of Francis Hughes who fought at King's Mountain, NC and was very active in the early formation of the state of Tennessee. In his Revolutionary War pension application of 1833, Francis Hughes (of King's Mountain) stated that he was born in 1759 in "Shenandoah County, VA". Shenandoah County was formed from Frederick County in 1772. Woodstock is therefore in what would have been referred to as Shenandoah County in 1833 when Francis made his pension application. I have found no other record of a Hughes owning land in Shenandoah County. Francis (G2) only owned land in Augusta/Rockingham county. I believe this suggests that Francis of King's Mountain was the son of John Hughes, not Francis Hughes. This would make Francis the brother of Aaron (G4) who marries Sarah Mackey in Tennessee.

I would like to have more evidence of John and Sarah's presence in Shenandoah County between 1759 and 1768 to feel comfortable about this conclusion. Aaron (G3) owned land in Augusta/Rockingham County just south of the Shenandoah County line. I have no evidence that he would have ever lived in Shenandoah County.

Augusta County, VA Deed book 15, p 220, dated 5 November 1768 - 224 acres (which had been patented to John Hughes) was conveyed to Joseph Lair by John Hughes and Sarah Hughes. This land was on a branch of Linville Creek and was adjacent to the land owned by the Lincoln family. Witnesses to the transaction were Andrew Byrd, Matthias Lair, and Edward Sampson. A further reference to this transaction can be found in Augusta County, VA Deed book 22, page 197, dated 16 August 1774 when the property was sold by Joseph Lair to his brother Andrew Lair.

The sale of John's land at Linville Creek and the town lot at Woodstock may represent the date for John and Sarah leaving Va. Aaron who married Sarah Mackay was born 1760/1770 according to census records and would have been less than 10 years old at this time.

Francis Hughes is also listed in the 1768 settlers of Augusta Co. (Augusta Parish Vestry Book, p.444). From 2V366: A John Hughes is listed as one of the Virginia troops in the Continental Line.

A John Hughes is listed in HENNINGS STATUTES AT LARGE as a member of the Augusta Co., VA militia in 1758.

FROM: COLONIAL SOLDIERS OF THE SOUTH 1732-1774 by Murtie Jane Clark p. 919 Accounts of pay due the companies in Col. Geo. Gabriel Powell's Battalion in the 1759 Cherokee Expedition, signed by the commanding officer 1/15/1760 Nr. 25 - Private John Hughes p. 895 and p. 928 (10/11/1759 & 1/15/1760) accounts of pay due. p. 940 "A list of Granville County Detachment under Capt. John McPherson, drafted 11/8/1759 and discharged 1/8/1760 - Private John Hughes (Granville Co. is in NC) If our John Hughes is in VA in 1768, selling property to Joseph Lair, this must refer to another John. This seems to relate to the Hughes family which is present in the Caswell County, NC area and which may or may not be related to us.

p. 985 "Composite List of Oglethorpe's Soldiers and Settlers" - John Hughes, Independent Company 1749-1764. Highland Independent Company, Darien (?) What is this reference to Darien (?). Also listed a Charles Hughes and a Thomas Hughes. This is a reference to a Charles Hughes for which I have no other information. Note that a Thomas Hughes is also mentioned in the processioning of land in Augusta Co. in 1748.

p 998 Muster Roll of Capt Thomas Goldsmith's Co. of Independent Foot, on duty in SC and GA 8/25/1756 - 10/24/1756. Pvt. John Hughs stationed Augusta & Fort Moore. Again, this must refer to another John. Is our John Hughes the John Hughes who was a "Long Hunter"? A John Hughes accompanied Dr. Thomas Walker on his expedition.

In 1753 a John is a witness to a deed for Thomas Moore in Augusta Co. VA Augusta Parish Vestry Book p. 122 __Aug, 1753: Joseph James, son of Wm. James, deceased, bound to John Hughes.

On September 27, 1762, John Hughes, Egniar Virden and Michael Warren were witnesses to the will of John Wright. John Wright was a son of James Wright. John left his land at Ball Hill, Bear Wallow and Perish Lines to his wife, Liddy, sons Abraham, James, Joshua, and John, and to daughters Elizabeth, Mary Sarah, Janet, Easter and Lydia. Executors were his wife, Lydia, and Daniel Smith. The will was proven on November 18, 1762. (Chalkley III, p. 73). I believe this refers to another family.

In "Maryland Marriage 1734-1777" p. 94 a John Hughs, Jr. is shown married to a Sarah Day Wright on 19 Feb. 1767 (2 BA-230). These references are probably just a coincidence. If the John Hughes who witnesses the will above is John (G3), it is possible that the Sarah who marries John (G3) is a daughter of John Wright. I need to check Chalkley and determine the location of these places mentioned in the will.

In Chalkley's "Records of Augusta Co." Vol 3, p. 478: "p. 220 of Deed Book No. 15 is sale on 5 Nov 1768 by John Hughes and wife Sarah ( ). There is a ( ) indicating a name is shown on the deed for Sarah. Check this in Augusta Co. Deed Books. I have one transcript where it indicates this was signed as Sarah (her mark) Hughs.

Washington Co. - County Court Minutes: Grand Jury indicted "John Hughs for living in fornication with widow Jones." May 21st 1782. I think these were Washington Co. NC minutes. Washington Co. NC covered all of the present state of Tennessee and parts of western NC. Also note that another John Hughes (lawyer) played a prominent role in the early development of east Tennessee. There also appears to be at least one other John Hughes present in this area at this time. This reference could be to any of these John Hughes.

In the Greene Co. (TN) Court Minutes for 1783 - 1799: "A deed of conveyance from Robt. Blackburn to John Hughes for one hundred and fifty acres of land was duly proven by the oaths of Francis Huges & Dan Kenedy & the Sale or'd to be rec'd." This is recorded in the May 1784 minutes for "Greene County and State of North Carolina" This may give us the date that John and Sarah moved to TN.

On Jan 12, 1803, Moses Hughes purchased 88 acres of land on the Southside of Chuckey River from Aaron Hughes & Sarah (Mother of Aaron? or wife of Aaron?) 24-55. In 1798 this land was shown in the name of John Hughes, Sr. in Capt. Reese Gullock's company. Since John (J) Hughes died in 1791, I am not sure what to make of this mention of John Hughes, Sr. I suppose it is possible that the land continued to be listed in his name after his death. His wife Sarah and son Aaron did continue to live on it and it is likely that the tax record simply continued in his name.

On page 32 Greene County Deed Book 4: Indenture 14 Aug 1788 John Hughs and Joseph Parks, 100 pounds paid, 150 acres in Greene County on Horse Creek, waters of Lick Creek. Land granted Robert Blackburn, Grant 337 at Fairfield, 24 Oct 1782. Signed also by Sarah Hughs. Witnesses: John Newman, Francis Johnston. Reg 2 Sept 1789

In the same court minutes: "One other from Michael Rawlings to Moses Hughes dated April 12th. 1791 for 100 acres of land was duly proven by the oaths of Asahel Rawlings and John Hughes and admitted to the record". (August 1791 Session). Another entry from the court minutes: "One other from Johnston Nelson to John Hughs Senr. dated December 27th. 1794 for eighty eight acres of land was duly proven by the oath of William Wilson and admitted to record." Note that this mentions a John Hughes who was alive after the death of John, father of Aaron who married Sarah Mackey. The reference to "Senr." could refer to a son John or that there was another related John who was younger than this person. It most likely refers to the deceased John (G3) Hughes. The "Senr" does not necessarily mean he had a son John Jr.

On page 69 Greene County Deed Book 4 Indenture 4 Aug 1789 Thomas Johnston and Francis Johnston (relationship not stated), ___ pounds paid, tract in Greene Co., NC, Lying on Lick Creek, beginning at corner to JOHN HUGHES, and containing 150 acres.

I have a number of references to a John Hues who acquires property on Buffeloe Creek in Washington County, TN about 1783. This John Hues is a lawyer from Rutherford County, NC. He may be related, but I don't think he is the John who married Sarah.

It appears that John owned property and may have lived in the town of Woodstock for some time prior to his sale of land there in 1768 to Mounts (Mounce) Bird. If John's mother was Christina Bird, Mounce would have been John's cousin. Mounce was the son of Andrew Bird and Magdalene Jones (daughter of Mounce Jones). Mounts was married to Clara Ruddell in Shenandoah County in about 1758. Mounce and Clara would have been married about 10 years when they bought the 1/2 acre in Woodstock from John. When referring to these records, it should be noted that 'Mounce' was also referred to as 'Moses' in some documents.

John Hughes is listed as a voter in Washington County, NC at Jonesboro as follows: "The under written names are the persons who voted at the election for the county of Washington on the third Fryday and Saturday in August 1786, at the Court house in Jonesborough." The names included John, several Gillaspies, and Seviers. This information is from "Tennessee Ancestors", Vol. 5, p. 88 August 1989.

Note that there is a long time span between the sale of 224 acres of land on a branch of Linville Creek in Augusta County, VA and the first evidence of John and Sarah in Tennessee - at least 10 or 12 years. It is probable that they moved to North Carolina as did so many other people from that part of Virginia. We need to do more research on the presence of John and Sarah Hughes in North Carolina from 1768 to 1783.

Another point of information which needs further research is the appearance in the "Order Book 1772-1774 - Shenandoah County" abstracted by Amelia C. Gilreath of a suit between "John Hughs & Isaac Hughs, executors of John Hughs, deceased (plaintiff) versus Joseph Puch, Gentleman (defendant). This suit listed on page 200 of the order book with a date of 28 September, 1773. Who is this John Hughs who is deceased as of 1773? Is this our John (G2)? If so, the John who goes to Tennessee and dies in 1791 (currently designated as (G3)) had a brother named Isaac. It would also solve the mystery about what happened to John (G2). Is there a will available in Frederick/Shenandoah county for this John? There are also suits listed in Order Book 1781-1784 of Shenandoah County (p. 221, 29 August 1783) involving a John Hughs as a defendant in a suit with Adam Teabo. Would this be our John (G3)? A William Hughes is also listed in these county records. Is he another son of John (G2)?

A will dated 7 Jul 1791 in "Greene County - Territory South of the River Ohio" Wife, Sarah, and son, Aaron, to receive all my estate her lifetime, then to him. Executor: Daniel Kennedy. Witnesses: Dan Kennedy, John McDonald. Signed: John J. Hughes

What happened to Sarah who was still alive? I have a note that the John McDonald who witnessed the above will married Eleanor Hughes 5 Jan 1790 (just before the will was witnessed). This could indicate that Eleanor was a sister to Aaron and a daughter of John and Sarah.

The above note was from the transcribed (typed) court records of Greene County. In July, 1992 my sister Marianne and I visited the courthouse in Greeneville and viewed the original will. A mistake was made in transcribing. John did not sign with the initial "J." The transcriber misread the left side of the capital letter 'H' in Hughs as the letter 'J'. (See note about signature above).

Transcriber's Notes:

1 Dr. Griffith Owen brought with him seven servents
7 Mr. Owen: the father of Dr. Griffith Owen
9 Rees Jones: also known as Rees John William
14 Hugh Harris: also had Harry as surname
21 Margaret Edwards: wife of Alexander Edwards
33 Jane Andrews: no point of origin given

*The name of the town of origin of the departure, Doleyshire, Marionethshire, was unable to be located by the transcriber. I question whether or not this is Denbigh/Dinbych, (Welch)/Denbigshire which was a former county next to Merionethshire or if it's Dolgelly, a town just below Merionth and it appears on the map to be in Merionethshire.

• Biographical Note 1462, Charles Hughes

Information from D. Michael Hughes:

Charles Hughes was a Quaker from Wales. Drawn by promises of William Penn, Charles took passage on the ship Vine to Philadelphia in 1684. The passage was paid for by David Davis, to whom he was indentured. Upon completion of the indenture, Charles received a 50 acre Penn grant.

His future wife, Rebecca, came over on the same ship. Charles inherited 200 acres from his friend Thomas Evans. They lived on the Schuykill River. His son John inherited the land on his death, as well as the coopering tools of his father's trade. The will is dated 1711 and was probated 1712, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.

• Biographical Note [1462], Speculation on the Life of Charles & Rebecca Hughes

This is a direct quote from the excellent research of David Michael Hughes:

Charles Hughes was born about 1665 in Denbighshire, Wales, and died 1711 in Philadelphia Co., PA. He married Rebecca in Radnor township, PA.

Notes for Charles Hughes:

The first direct ancestor of our family to come to America is Charles Hughes of Wales. It is possible that other members of Charles' family had already traveled to America. In fact, there are several "Hughes" in the Welsh groups of Quakers who preceded Charles. At some point it would be useful to investigate their origin. Records in Wales may provide some information about this.

Charles Hughes was on the ship Vine of Liverpool which sailed from Dolyserre (Dolserau) an estate on the Wnion River in Wales, and arrived Philadelphia 17.7 mo 1684. He was listed as a manservant of David Davis who came with his sister Katherine and her daughter Mary Tidey (Tudor). Charles had 3 years to serve. They all apparently came from Denbighshire in Wales. It is near Dolgules (Dolgellau) in Merionethshire Wales.

There were 96 passengers listed on the ship. On the same voyage was Rees Jones who was from Llanglynin. Other passengers on the voyage were from Machinleth or Manhinteth (Machynlleth) in Montgomeryshire. Dr. Griffith Owen was also on this voyage. Griffith Owen was apparently the son of Robert Owen, the famous Quaker leader who lived at Dolserau.

Charles' date of birth is estimated based on an assumption he was probably in his twenties when he sailed.

Another account of the voyage of Charles Hughes to America is in Emigrants to Pennsylvania, edited by Michael Tepper. Under the chapter headed "A Partial List of the Families who Arrived at Philadelphia Between 1682 and 1687" are the following comments, page 7: "It may surprise some of our readers to learn of the number of servants brought out by the early settlers. This is no doubt greatly increased by the liberal terms which Penn offered to emigrants. The advantages offered to those who would bring servants and those who would come as such were equal. Each was to have fifty acres when the servant's time should expire. Nor did the word servant as used here necessarily imply a person who was to perform menial duties. On the contrary, they were often farm hands or skilled mechanics, in some cases of the same social position as their masters, in others they were no doubt overseers to act for purchasers who remained in England, a measure suggested by Penn in his first proposals to purchasers and which he subsequently found reasons to regret."

In fact, Charles' will establishes that he was a cooper and carpenter and became a successful farmer.

Ibid, p. 10: "William Preeson Mr (master) of the Vine of Leverpoole arrived the 1th day of the 7 mo. 1684 At Philadelphia ffrom Dolyserne near dolgules in Merionothshire. Robert Owen & Jeane his wife and Lewes their sone, one servt Boy named Edward Edwards for 8 years & 4 serv't Maids named Loury Edwards for 4 yrs. Margaret Edwards for 4 yers. Ann Owen for 12 yers and Hannah Watt for 3 yers. From 'Derbyshire': David Davis & Katherine his sister & Mary Tidey her daughter and one serv't man named Charles Hues for 3

Also on this ship were several girls named Rebecca. From Shropshire, Rechard Turner and Margaret his wife & Rebecca their Daughter. From Walton in Lancashire, Henry Baker & Margaret his wife & their Daughters Rachell, Rebecca, Phebey & Hester... From Lancashire, Rebecca, Martha & Elenor Hall & Rebecca Barrow.

In the will of Charles Hughes, written in 1711, "Edward Ab Edward" was a witness to the will. This is probably the servant boy Edward Edwards who was aboard the ship Vine with Charles. If he was a "servant boy" in 1684, he would have been in his mid-thirties in 1711.

I have a note which indicates that the arrival of David Davis, Charles Hughes, etc. on the ship Vine was recorded in the minutes of the Merion Monthly Meeting. If that is the case, it is possible that David Davis was a member of that meeting and Charles may have been also. I need to confirm this information.

In the Welsh Settlement of Pennsylvania by Browning, it is stated that the Radnor mm minutes of 11.2mo 1695 indicate Charles Hughes married out of the church. Radnor township was located just west of Bryn Mawr, PA and just Southeast of Valley Forge. Highway 30 west of Philadelphia runs through this area. This is about 25 miles downstream on the Schuylkill River from Birdsboro. In previous records of the Radnor monthly meeting, Charles is a witness to weddings of several people from 1689 to 1693. Note that this places Charles as a resident of the Radnor township from 1689 to 1695.

A Pennsylvania researcher, Vivian Taylor, said she did not find any particular reference in the monthly meeting minutes which indicated that Charles "married out", only the reference which criticized the other witnesses who were Quakers for attending the wedding outside the church.

Charles may not have been a Quaker. The Quakers who attended his wedding and were criticized may have been his friends. I need to check the Radnor mm minutes for 2/11/1695 to see exactly how this is worded.

Welsh Settlement of Pa, page 262, states: "...and that because David Potts, Owen Thomas, and Evan Harry were at the wedding, 'which marriage friends had no unity with,' "they were dealt with by Robert Owen and Edward Jones, and thereupon gave forth the following paper of condemnation, viz. For as much as we whose names are hereunto written, for want of due consideration have unadvisedly been at the dishonorable marriage of Charles Hughes, and by so doing have transgressed against this good order as established among friends of Truth," &c., hereby acknowledging publicly before the meeting the mistake they made. But in 1722, 5 mo. the Radnor Mo. Mtg. was not so certain of its stand as to "dishonorable marriages," as it instructed its representatives to the quarterly meeting "to report that the monthly meeting was concerned whether it was necessary to disown such persons as go the the priest to marry, or only advise them."

The Radnor mm minutes show that Charles Hughes signed as a witness to weddings in the Quaker Church 8/18/1689, 12/4/1690, 4/23/1692, and 2/22/1693.

In Philadelphia Will Book C, page 295, of 1712, Charles Hughes, wife Rebecca, Children Francis, John, Rebecca, and Ann. Wife and Rees Ap
Edward (?sp) executors. Witnesses Rees Ab Edward and Edward Rees. Signed with his mark Dec. 9, 1711, proved May 8, 1712. A Rees came over on the ship Vine with Charles. A Rees Hughes marries a Mary Jones 4 May 1717 in Christ Church Phil record.

Charles' will is recorded in the Philadelphia will Book C in 1712. Is this the place it would be recorded if Charles was living in Radnor township when he died?

Charles was the executor of the will of Thomas Evans in Upper Providence, Chester County, PA in 1710. Upper Providence township is only three or four miles southwest of Radnor township. The will of Thomas Evans reads "I give devise and bequeath unto my friend Charles Hughes after my said debts and legacies are paid all ye residue of my houses or other ... ailments and appurtenances apparel money plate household goods carpenters tools chattles debts by bond , G.., book, ye or otherwise whensoever or wheresoever to be paid, and deliver to him by my executor to hold to him and his heirs and assignes from henceforth for ever, and I do hereby constitute and ordain my friend Charles Hughes to be sole executor of my last will and testament ...." Thomas Evans apparently left all his estate to Charles Hughes who he described as "friend". Apparently Thomas Evans had no family. What was his connection to Charles Hughes? I had speculated that he might be the father of Rebecca but that is not likely. He might have been related in some other way to Rebecca.

The Gwynedd meeting was formed by sanction of the Radnor No. Mtg. and they began meeting in 6mo 1699. Gwynedd members would be on Radnor minutes until about 1700/1702.

Welsh Founders of Pennsylvania, page 173: "Evan ap Hugh of near Bala, Co. Mer. (Merioneth), yeoman; prob s. (son) of Hugh Cadwalader ap Rhys, of par. (parish?) of Yspytty Evan, and bro. of John ap Hugh (or John Hugh, or Pugh, of Gwynedd). Rmd (removed?) to Gwynedd, Penna., 1698.

Ch. E. (Church of England) Freeholder of 800 a. (acres) ld. (land) in Gwynedd." Whether or not this has any connection with our family I do not know.

The Fulham Papers in the Lambeth Palace Library, Vol VII pages 271,274 by William Wilson Manrose lists Charles Hughes (PA) as a member of Christ Church in Phil 18 May 1741. Also listed as an inhabitant of Wilmington Parish in VA. Could this be a Charles Hughes, son of Francis or John, who is is the militia with Aaron and Mathias in VA? Where is Wilmington Parish? There is a very small town named Wilmington southeast of Charlottesville in Fluvanna County, VA near the James River.

Other mentions of a Charles Hughes:
I searched the Digest Register of Births, Marriages, and Burials for England and Wales c 1650-1837, reels 14, 15, and 16 for a Charles Hughes, none found.

A Charles Hughes is listed as a witness to a will of a Walter Dickenson of Talbot Co. MD in Feb 1680 (Maryland Calendar of Wills" Vol. I, page 99. This cannot be the Charles who came over on the Vine, but we need to be careful to realize there were at least two Charles around in 1680/1700.

A Charles Hughes, age 50, sailed from London to Virginia aboard the Constance on 24 October 1635. He is probably not related to any of our Hughes.

Vivian Taylor commented that the name "Charles" is troublesome to her. She said she was told that at that time no protestant (Quaker or otherwise) would name their child Charles because Charles, King of England, was a Catholic. She felt this might indicate that Charles Hughes was not a Quaker. However, our Charles was probably born just after Charles II regained the throne in 1661. He was very popular for a few years and many children were named for him. His later fall from popularity may explain why Francis may not have named a child "Charles."

I have a transcript of Charles' will. It names children John, Francis, Rebeckah, and Ann.

• Biographical Note [1462], Rebecca Hughes

Quoted from the excellent research of David Michael Hughes:

Rebecca was born Abt. 1675. She married Charles Hughes in Radnor township, Pennsylvania.

The birth date is estimated based on marriage date of 1695 when Charles married out of the church. It is possible (or probable) that Rebecca's father was named John. Rebecca's first son was named John. It was quite common for families at this time (and in this geographic area) to follow the Quaker naming convention which dictated that the first son would be named after the mother's father.

BAILEYS IN GREENE COUNTY, TENN.

Deeds:

John Parks to James Bailey, 60 acres south side of Chucky River, Nov. 26, 1812.

John Lescalleet to John Bailey, south side of Chucky River, April 27, 1812.

Marriages:

James Bailey to Elizabeth Kennedy, Jan. 18, 1804, daughter of Daniel Kennedy. Elizabeth had a brother, Allen Kennedy.

Allen Bailey married Nancy Baker, Oct. 19, 1819.

John Bailey married Elizabeth Fann, July 16, 1894.

Other deeds:

James Bailey to John Allison, 138½ acres, So. Chucky River 1832. James Bailey to Stephen Johnson, April 20, 1818. Wit: Martin Waddle.

Martin Bailey from John Stimpson, 80 acres, Lick Creek, Feb. 28, 1809.

Martin Bailey from Samuel Stanfield, 150 acres Sinking Creek, Feb. 28, 1809.

Martin Bailey from Thomas Thompson, 2 tracts 226 acres Feb. 28, 1809. (note the three last deeds on the same day.) Martin to John Bailey on Lick Creek.

Martin Bailey to Wm. K. Vance, June 25, 1842.

Martin Bailey (probably Jr.) to Henry Crabtree, Jan. 8, 1870.

Samuel and John Martin were living in Greene Co. in 1830.

Deed: Allen Bailey to Peter Missimer, Nov. 5, 1814.

Allen Bailey to Peter Missimer, 200 acres south side of Nolichucky River, 1824.

James Bailey to George Reaves, 100 acres Nolichucky River, on Camp Creek, part of the land granted by N. C. to John Sevier, 640 acres, Aug. 24, 1830.

James Bailey to William B. Jones, 500 acres on Camp Creek South of Nollichucky, bounded by James Kelly Wm. B. Jones and others (date not ascertained).

James Bailey to Thomas Johnson, 37 acres, Camp Creek, 1836.

Bk 8, p 497, Jan. 25, 1810.

Court Record: Hopkins Lacy, Thomas Buckingham, Nathaniel B. Buckingham, Executors of the last will of Thomas Buckingham, deceased of the County of Sevier of the one part and John Kennedy, Thomas Kennedy, Daniel Kennedy, Allen Kennedy, Washington Kennedy, Daniel Rawlings, Stephen Alexander, James Bailey, Margaret Kennedy and ? Rawlings, heirs of the estate of Daniel Kennedy, deceaseed, of Greene County, Tenn. $600. north side of Nolichucky River; it being the plantation whereon the said Thomas Buckingham formerly lived.

John Bailey married Phebe Small, Dec. 26, 1812, by V. Sevier. Probably the same John who married Elizabeth Fann, 1804.

John Baley to John Parson, Bk 11, p 70, Jan. 29, 1817, 200 acres south side of Chucky River, waters of Cane Creek.

John Bailey to William George, Bk 11, p 389, Jan. 15, 1819, north side of Chucky River.

Martin Baley to William R. Bayles, of Washington Co., 340 acres on the head of Mill fork of Big Limestone, $2000. Reg. June 20, 1839.

Martin Baley to Michael Maltsbarger 76 acres, $450. Reg. June 20, 1839. Martin Baley to John Bailey, 150 acres, $900. on Lick Creek, Reg. June 20, 1839. Total 566 acres $3350. Same date. He was not listed in the 1840 census, so he must have left Greene County about this time for parts unknown.

We cannot definitely identify the above Baileys, but since the Martins, Waddles and Baileys were related by marriage in Fauqueir County, Va., and we know some of them came to Greene County, we are assuming without proof, that they were all from Virginia. James, John and Martin may have been brothers.

Ephraim Bailey married Margaret Johnson in Greene County July 1, 1790.

Will: Margaret Baley of Greene County, July 5, 1805, To only daughter, Sarah Baley.

Signed, Margaret (her mark) Baley.

Ex: David Moore.

Nothing more is known of this family.

have tried to confine this data to genealogy, and a final word of our own.

In 1953, I rode on the bus from Boone to N. Wilkesboro, North Carolina with Prof. Dougherty, President of North Carolina State College at Boone. The Prof. was a very old, but distinguished and interesting gentleman, who knew his history. I listened with great interest to him talk about the early settlement of Western North Carolina and East Tennessee.

He said Daniel Boone lived at Boone for 9 years, 1761 to 1769. He said that his father had later bought the Boone place, and that he, himself had sold or given away as souvenirs the last chips of stone out of the old Boone chimney. This is not generally known.

The Beech Treee on which "D. Boon CILLED A, BAR On Tree in THE YEAR 1760," has long since fallen, and every sprig of it has been carried away as souvenirs to all parts of the United States; and a stone monument and plaque has been raised in its place. It is about one and a half miles above where the Kingsport-Johnson City highway crosses Boone's Creek, the first creek west of Boone's Creek School.

I was in New Brunswick, New Jersey, about 20 miles this side of New York and met a lady (foreign born) in the clerks office, who had not long been in the States, and when I told her I was from Kingsport, Tenn., she exclaimed: "O, you are from the Daniel Boone country," and began to ask many questions, most of which I could not answer. I explained that most of the people of this section knew very little about Boone, and some of them had scarcely heard of him. She was greatly surprised, and I quoted a passage in the Bible: "A Prophet is not without honor save in his own country and among his own people."

But when I told her he was my uncle by marriage, several times removed, she was very attentive to show me how to find the information I was looking for, just as tho I was important.

PREFACE

This book would not have been possible without the assistance of many persons. To name them all is impossible, but to each of you my sincerest thanks.

Dr. J. M. Shockley, President of the Maries County Historical Society, has been the effective leader in this project. I wish to acknowledge his invaluable work—without him the book would not have been published.

The book is not current. No changes, other than minor editing corrections, have been made in the manuscript as left by my father.

A dedication in the usual sense is not possible. I feel he wrote it for the people of his home county with whom he spent his life.

Katheryn Louise King.

they live at Newburg.

Clem Lawson, who was related to the other branches of the family, but in what degree we do not know, may have been the first of the name to settle here. If not, he certainly came here about the same time as the others. Nothing is known of his ancestry or that of his wife, and no birth, death, nor marriage dates have been preserved. He was the father of four children, all of whom lived in this county at one time or another; their age-order is not known.

Alex Lawson, his son, born August 5, 1842, served in the Confederate Army, married Ellen Duncan after the war closed, and died November 28, 1920. His nine children, all living at the last accounts, are: John C. of St. Louis; William F. of Joplin; Lindsay M. of Fredericktown; Roy H. and Mrs. C. E. Shepherd of Piedmont; George W. of Ellington; and Mrs. Nathan Lawson of Sudheimer, this county. The other two children, Edward A. Lawson and Mrs. Sarah E. Montgomery, live at Bauxite, Arkansas.

Lindsay Lawson, another son, is survived by the five children of his daughter, Ellen, wife of Laughlin Sherrill, both of whom are dead: Mary L., Amanda, Eva, wife of Ferd Healey, Isaac, and Claude, the first living in Chicago. A son, George Calvin Lawson, is the only descendant of Lindsay Lawson's second marriage.

Calvin Lawson, the third son, has been dead a great many years. His widow, Evelyn, died in Kansas City in 1940. They are survived by three children, William, Etta, and Mary Ellen, wife of Monroe Barnhart.

Nancy, the fourth child and only daughter of Clem Lawson, married Elisha Lee; she seems to have spent her whole married life and died in Miller County, leaving four children: Marion, Louis, Isaac, and Alice, who married a Machon.

LIGHT BAILEY FAMILIES

We do not know exactly when any of the pioneer members of the Light or Bailey families came to Maries County, but we do know that some, and maybe all of them, were here as early as 1834. This date is fixed by the recorded fact that Spring Creek Township was sectionized that year, and the surveyor records that the line between sections 28 and 29 ran through Light's field. The plat book shows this field to have been of considerable extent, much more than would ordinarily have been cleared in one year, so the first ones must have come anywhere from two to six years before 1834 (the six year limit is placed because no persons of these names appear on the Gasconade County tax list of 1828). None of the Lights entered the land platted as 'Light's Field,' and it is now owned by Lawrence and Simon Feeler and Mrs. Nannie Palmer, the the first two being great-grandchildren of Enoch Light.

Nebraska; and Nellie who married a Smith and whose present address is not at hand. In addition, another son, James Light, married and left a son, Walter, and a daughter, Anna, married name unknown, also left descendants, all of whom are believed to be dead.

Val S. Light, old-time City Marshal of Rolla, who made good boys out of a number of that city's bad ones, was twice married. His first wife was Jennie Smith of Phelps County, by whom he was the father of one son, Frank, now in California. His second wife was Mary J. Moman. Of the four children of this marriage Alice is dead; she was married and left descendants but their names and addresses are not known here. Lula and probably Maud live in Chicago, and Ernie in this county.

Caroline, wife of A. L. Joice, twice County Judge of this county, spent her entire life and died near Veto in this county, near which her son, William, and one daughter, wife of Sherman Moreland, now live. The other daughter lives in either Detroit or Chicago.

Libbie Light married a Ray and spent most of her married life in Texas County where both she and her husband died. Her children, all now in California, include: Anna, Letitia, wife of Edward Wegman, Nannie, Ella, wife of Charles Baxter and Georgia, some of whom may be dead.

Ellen, the remaining child of Wright Light, married Thomas Dotson, also in Phelps County. Her children several years ago were: F. P., Bevina, Columbus, and Marion Dotson. We have no information as to their addresses or family circumstances.

Flower Light, the youngest of the three Light brothers and in his day a noted jockey at the old Spencer Mill Track, died at Vichy something like forty-five years ago, having been totally blind the last years of his life. His first wife, whom he married before leaving Tennessee and the mother of all his children, was a Rice. Their five children, not in age-order, were: John, William, George, Ellen, and Jane Light, all long since dead.

John married Lizzie Elder and not many years afterwards moved to the Boston Mountains in Arkansas, where he spent the remainder of his life and where he and his wife both died. At the time they left here they were the parents of two daughters, Sarah and Jane; nothing is known here of other descendants.

William Henson (Bud) Light married Mary Ford; they lived their entire lives and died in Spring Creek Township, childless.

George Light went to Texas in an early day where he married and spent the remainder of his life. Ellen married a Dr. Fancher and lived the remainder of her life in Kansas; nothing is known here of any descendants of either of them.

Jane Light, the remaining child, married John Hood. She died in this county in middle age, after which her widower and their children moved to Colorado, where he and two of the children, Robert and Nellie, died. The remaining children, Ralph, Lester, Della, wife of John Hibler, and Blanche, who married a man named Murchison, are thought to still live in that state.

Sometime after the death of his first wife, Flower Light was married to Eliza, widow of Jacob Love, nee Miller, daughter of Martin Miller, who survived him; no children were born of this marriage.

We have even fewer details about the Bailey family than we have about the Lights. James Bailey Senior was the ancestor of the family, coming here from Tennessee with or at least near the time the Lights came, and the record of one of his daughters, Margaret, is found in the Light section of this chapter. James seems to have lived on, or

1. History of Maries County by Everett Marshall King, pp. 565-569: James Bailey Family - mentions son Alexander. That Alexander Bailey did not die single and childless has been proven in my supplemental on John Delany (A201718 Volume 941). He did correctly list James Bailey's and Elizabeth Kennedy's children.

2, Letters of Administrators, Crawford County Missouri, Vol. A, p. 57: "...James Baily deceased late of the County of Crawford in the State of Missouri died intestate..." "7th day of Nov A. D. 1845."

3. Heirs of James Bailey: Maries County Deed Book T, pp. 512-513 - "Margaret Bailey the wife of Alexander Bailey Dec.d"

4. Birth of Elizabeth Kennedy Bailey - Everett King did not know the maiden name of Elizabeth wife of James Bailey. See Membership Roster and Soldiers, 1961, compiled by Edythe Rucker Whitley, p. 958: Children of Daniel Kennedy includes #7 - Elizabeth, born Aug. 21, 1790, married James Bailey.

5. Death of Elizabeth Kennedy Bailey - Heirs of James Bailey: Maries County Deed Book T, pp. 512-513: "...and Elizabeth Baily all heirs of James Bailey senior, Deceased." Puts death date at p 1st Sep 1846. Elizabeth Kennedy Bailey is not found on the 1850 census.
